

TRIPLE R's WALLOP DEEP SLEEPS

ROSEMARY BACOES BEAT PATTERSON MILL 5 TO 1

Bernard Edmondson and his rough and ready Triple R outfit treated the Deepsleeps of Roanoke Mills rather rough last Saturday at Simmons Park, taking the first game of the Textile double header 8 to 0.

The Deepsleeps played rather listless ball to drop their sixth league game. Carroll pitched good ball but his teammates did everything in their power to helping the town team along the road to victory. The Roanokers garnered only four bingles from Shearin's delivery and the ywerc well scattered. Brown got two of these. The Triple R outfit got only six hits from Carroll, errors paving the way for most of the runs. The work of E. Edmondson behind the bat for the town team and the hitting of the Shearin boys featured for them, while the pitching of Carroll for the Deepsleeps was the outstanding thing for the downtowners.

The Bascoes defeated Patterson

Mill 5 to 1 in the last game of the double header to annex their ninth straight win. "Husky" Johnson pitched for the Rosemary outfit and hung up his fourth straight victory for the Bascoes. The hitting of "Wee Wee" Outland was the outstanding thing in the Rosemary attack. He banged three out of four to lead both teams. Ryals and Matthews also got two out of four for the Bascoes. Jones led the offensive for Patterson with two out of three. Ferrell made several pretty catches for the Silver Kings in left field. It was the Silver King's sixth loss of the season in League play.

True Facts About the Dry Cleaners Price war

The Dry Cleaning industry of the Twin Cities is offering its services at a very low price. The present dry cleaning prices were preceded by an alleged dry cleaners' price war in which the firm whose name appears at the bottom of this advertisement freely admits participating. In last week's issue of this newspaper this alleged price war was given unjust publicity in an advertisement.

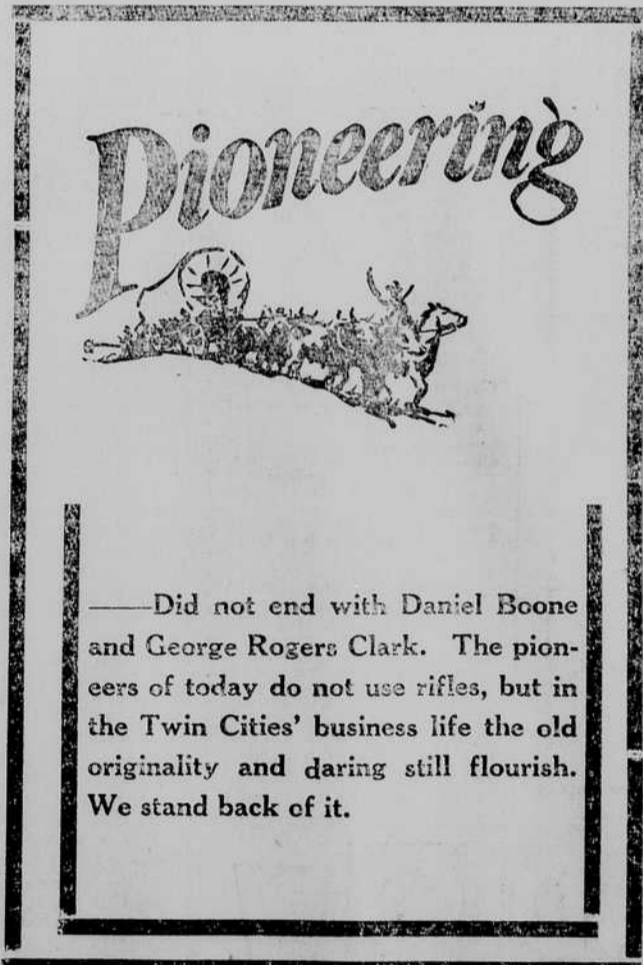

We were the last to enter the price war. Before our name was added as one of the participants wide publicity had already been given to the cut prices. In view of the present depression in business and the employment situation of the Twin Cities we believe we and all dry cleaning plants here are justified in adjusting our prices to meet local conditions. Our own prices were arranged more to meet local conditions than to meet local competition.

Although we are operating on a lower price scale, the quality of our work has not been decreased. The same high class service offered prior to the price cut is still in effect. With the great overhead in our business which has been brought about by the installation of modern machinery and the employing of high class workmen the present prices we are charging for our services give us a very small margin on our work. Even this small margin is gained only through a large volume of business.

We wish to thank our many customers for the patronage they have extended to us in the past and their continued patronage will be greatly appreciated. We assure you of the best class of work in the future.

Pioneering

—Did not end with Daniel Boone and George Rogers Clark. The pioneers of today do not use rifles, but in the Twin Cities' business life the old originality and daring still flourish. We stand back of it.
