

Convict Succumbs To Heat At Caledonia

One of the convicts at the Caledonia Prison Farm near Tillery fell prostrate in the field last Wednesday and died a few hours later, according to Capt. N. E. Ranes, Warden of the Prison. The intense heat is thought to have caused his death. One mule was lost also but it is not known whether the cause of his death was attributed to the heat, according to reports from the prison farm. "The men have not been working full time this week or last week," stated Capt. Ranes, "and will not until this hot weather lets up," he added. The thermometer registered 99 degrees at Caledonia the hottest day of this week.

FACTS ABOUT HALIFAX

Negro Is In Jail On Charge of Stealing Sugar from Store

With 200 pounds of stolen sugar on his wagon headed for home, Joseph Warren, negro, had his journey abruptly broken before he reached the town limits of Enfield when he was caught by Robert Kimball and C. W. Strickland and placed in the hands of the law to assume responsibility for taking property of the Randolph Store Co. without Mr. Randolph's knowledge. The negro admitted to his guilt.

The Randolph Store Co. being closed Wednesday when an order of sugar was sent to his store, the drayman placed the sacks in a storage and junk room of the Kimball Hardware building. Mr. Kimball going back to room later noticed that some of the sugar was missing. With Mr. Strickland, he started out looking for the thief. Warren was caught just at the railroad track with the goods on his wagon.

The negro was given a hearing before Mayor A. M. Atkinson, and failing to raise bond of $100, was placed in Halifax County jail.

Robbers Take $75 From Service Station

Making their entry through a window, robbers visited the Shell Gasoline Station on the edge of Enfield Wednesday night and unnoted left the proprietor with about a $75 loss as a remembrance of their intrusion. No accessories have been missed, nor were any clues left that would lead to an arrest.

Crops Made Improvement During Past Week

Weather condition the third week in July was favorable for the growth of crops in the Roanoke-Chowan section. Showers were quite general throughout this section, but heavier in some than in others. As most crops had been cultivated clean they got the full benefit of the showers and the favorable temperature, not so hot as in many sections of the country.

The fight on the boll weevil continued and much good accomplished in checking the spread of the weevils. On some farms where cotton has been dusted two and three times it is thought the weevil is under control and cotton is blooming well. Frequent cultivations have also destroyed large numbers of the little pests.

The corn crop made great improvement during the past week. The early planted has matured.

Buck Horn Country Club Is Organized

The Buck Horn Country Club will soon become a familiar name in and around Scotland Neck, as this is the name which has been adopted by a group of golf enthusiasts who are rapidly shaping plans to put a golf course in playing order.

Those interested in the formation of a local golf club met last Friday night and formed a temporary organization. Fifteen men signified their willingness to become charter members of a club and work was started at once on working out the details and getting a larger membership.

The second meeting of the group was held Tuesday night of last week and a permanent organization was perfected. Irwin Clark was elected president of the club and Ashley Bryant, secretary and treasurer. The members decided to name the infant organization the Buck Horn Country Club since it is between Buck Horn Creek and Chapel Run, two and one half miles from the pavement in East Scotland Neck on the Palmyra road.

The third meeting of the club was held last night and it was decided to allow the first 30 men to join the club by paying an initiation fee of $25, the next ten to pay $37.50 and the balance to pay $50, with date of application for membership to be considered when filed with a cash payment for the full amount with the treasurer. The club now has about 20 paid-in members and it is believed that the thirty mark will be reached before this week is gone.

CLERK OF COURT AND SUCCESSFUL OPPONENT CLASH

(By J. ROY PARKER)
W. F. McGlohan, clerk of the Superior Court, and Alvah Early, who defeated the former for the nomination to the Clerk's office in the primary of June 7th, were the principals in the only Monday "meeting" in the courthouse at Winton. It was an off day for the County Boards, and politics stepped in to create the only big news of the day. John A. Northcott, County Accountant, who spends two Mondays in each month being secretary to the county boards, acted as arbiter on the Monday's meeting.

Mr. McGlohan attempted to strike or throw his iron or steel clerk's seal at Mr. Early, who was sitting in the clerk's office talking to Miss Mary Wood, assistant to Mr. McGlohan. Mr. Northcott who was standing between the two, prevented trouble by grabbing the upraised arm of Mr. McGlohan. Miss Wood also assisted in preventing further trouble by stepping between the two men.

Mr. Early made no attempt to strike or prolong the argument. He left the office for that of register of Deeds.

Whitehead Taps Forger On Head

Leslie Willie, Negro, is in Halifax jail with a sore spot on his head where he was tapped by Chief J. F. Whitehead of Enfield when he tried to escape from the law after forging the name of W. H. Bailey, white man of Enfield, to a $50 check.

The negro brought the check to the Bank of Enfield soon after the doors opened Monday morning and asked for cash. The bank officials seeing that the signature was not that of Mr. Bailey's told the negro that the cash had not been taken out and to come back later. The man left the bank with the forged check and Chief Whitehead was told to watch him.

After waiting around town for awhile the negro entered the Young Mercantile Co., and called for a suit of clothes. The size didn't make any difference to him, he said, all he wanted was some clothes. While he was being waited on, Chief Whitehead stepped in the back door and the negro started to make his departure through the front entrance.

Arthur Vick and Sam Venson who knew the check and were aiding the law, were in the front of the store and as the negro started out, they caught him. A tussel ensued, and the law-breaker was brought to order by a tap over the head from the billy of Chief Whitehead.

A hearing before Mayor A. M. Atkinson was held and the negro placed under a $300 bond. Failing to give bond, the negro was sent to Halifax jail to await the next term of Superior court.
