

TEXTILES TO PLAY MIDWAY A. C. SATURDAY

TAKE SERIES FROM SLAGLE WITH TWO STRAIGHT WINS

This coming Saturday at Simmons Park the local Textile All Stars will clash with the strong Midway Athletic Club from Norfolk, Va. The visitors are supposed to have one of the fastest clubs in Tidewater Virginia and have victories over different strong clubs in Virginia and Carolina.

Lake outfit are expected to take the measure of the visitors. Carroll or Crowder will hurl for the locals and Edmondson will catch. The fans can be assured of a hard, well played game.

Beat Slagles Again

The Textiles gave Slagles Lake a sound trouncing last Saturday at Simmons Park to take the last game with the Virginians by an 8 to 5 score. The series was for two out of three win the series. Carroll went back on and the Textiles took the first two to the mound for the locals and won his second straight victory by allowing the visitors 13 hits but they were mostly scattered. The Textiles bumped, Taylor for only nine hits but they were hits when hits meant runs and accounted for eight markers.

Birdsong was again the outstanding fielding star of the game. Time and time again he dug base hit out of the dirt and got the runner at first, while his hitting was one of the bright spots of the game. Ryals poled one off the right field wall with Edmondson on base in the 8th inning to practically cinch the game. L Edmondson and Ferrell both got two out of four for the Textiles. Outland featured in the outfield with a nice catch of Joyner's long fly in the first. Whitehead and Benton starred for Slagles. Bill Allgood, in center, made seven put-outs.

Birdsong Plenty Good

This Birdsong boy who plays third base for the Textiles should go up higher. Put him under a good coach, give him a chance and the boy will make good. He has a rifle arm, good baseball sense and can hit. What's to keep him back?

And Next Wednesday

Don't forget the Kiwanis-American Legion baseball game next Wednesday. Here's what Captain Ned Manning has to say in regard to the game: "We are going to give them a fit, our pitcher, J. Saunders is in the best condition of his career, and I am confident he will come thru. We have everything, so why not?"

Captain Hugh Camp in an interview with The Herald sports writer has the following to say: Ha-ha-ha! My idea about this game with the old soldiers is this; when Captain Manning and his run-down bunch of ex-dog robbers get in this ball game they will have to call out the National Guard to put us out."

LEAGUE CHATTER

A lot of talk about our All-Star pick in The Herald, why did we put the men at different positions, etc. Well, the main reason was to start an argument about the best players. In other words there are about twenty or thirty baseball players in town that there is little difference in. And we did not figure in the Junior Bascoes.

Baseball ain't nothing but the blues. That's what the Textiles will probably think after that game with Littleton Blues.

A sound of foot meeting leather. Hurrying feet digging in hard turf, crisply barked signals, a crash of well conditioned bodies on off tackle plays, the shrill whistle of the referee and we don't have to tell you what its all about, you will soon know. Its the old game of football. Whoopee.

And that brings to mind that the local high school yellowjackets should have a very good team this fall, every man back but Johnson and Wertz, and a new coach. Captain Starks is all smiles. He should be with all these prospects.

And have you heard that one about the High School player who pegged an Irish potato in centerfield with two men on bases and then calmly tagged both runners as they came in home? Well, Ned Manning told us. Believe it or not.
