TWIN CITY HAPPENINGS

SPEED
Hustle and bustle
Laughter and song
As the many cars
Go speeding along.

A scream, a cry
A scraping of brakes
As a precious life—
That speeding takes.

And then we stand by
One by one—
We look, we see—
What speed has done.

And still its live or die,
Laugh or cry,
We just go on—
Speeding by.

JACKETS WILL PLAY GREENVILLE AT FAIR

LOSE GAME LAST WEEK

Drop First Conference Tilt to Washington High School 19 to 6

Returning from Washington last week with a 19 to 6 loss to the far Eastern lads, the Roanoke Rapids Yellow Jackets will take on Greenville at the Halifax County Fair Friday at three thirty.

It will be the locals fourth Conference game, the one dropped to Washington being their first defeat. According to the dope the Jackets lost to Washington due to the fact that the Pamlicoos were just too strong.

The Yellow Jackets up until this game had defeated Washington five years in succession in football. Credit, fullback of the Washington team, was mainly responsible for the Roanoker's setback, while they had Roanoke Rapids outweighed in the line and backfield.

Mills and Colon Womble stood out for the Rapids, Womble scoring the only touchdown by grabbing a pass and racing twenty yards for the marker. "Tynmite" Matthews played a bangup game until a knee injury finally put him out.

The game was marred by too many penalties, and too much growling by both teams.

The Greenville Greenbacks will come to town this Friday with a team that is rated far above anything that they have produced down there in many years, and are expected to give the Jackets all they can handle. Probably one of the biggest crowds of the year will see the game.

And Coach Hoyle will not have any pleasant dreams with Greenville, New Bern, Elizabeth City, looming up in front of his Yellow Jackets.

SPORT BRIEFS

And they say that this boy Credit for Washington is plenty good. He stands six feet in stockings and he weighs 180. Very husky for a youngster, we would like to see him when he gets full grown.

Saw Carolina and Maryland play Saturday at the Hill. Some game. All Carolina needs is a line and they would have a team. Branch and Magner are two of the best backs in the Southern Conference. Fullback House from Weldon, does his part, too.

And that reminds us, if this Matthews boy from Rosemary, keeps on improving, and puts on more weight, when he finishes High School some college will be overlooking a good prospect if they don't take him in.

And the reminds us: Jimmy Shell, who plays center for the Jackets, is quite a witty character. He broke out with this one after the Washington affair: That Roanoke Rapids was winning until the Referee stole his hammer away from him. Which was not so bad at that. Tush, tush, Jimmy.

In our selection last week we picked Carolina to beat Maryland and they did—lucky at that. We picked Duke to lick Davidson and they did. We picked N. C. State to beat Clemson and they did—not—losing 27 to 0. We picked Guilford to lick Randolph-Macon, it was a scoreless tie. Roanoke Rapids got our predicted six points against Washington but failed to hold the lads from Down East—result Washington 19, Roanoke Rapids 6.

Yale will have a healthy respect for Georgia from now on. Beaten by the Southerners at Athens last year 15 to 0, they were out for revenge this year in the Bowl, but Georgia finally emerged victor by the score of 18 to 14. Albie Booth played a fine game but the Georgia Crackers were all over this streak who wears the blue of Yale.

Curley Byrd can lay claim to two of the best backs in Maryland in Berger and Evans. Together they almost beat Carolina Saturday. Only Mr. Branch saved them.

The Twin Cities can lay claim to one of the best athletic plants in Eastern Carolina with Simmons Field, and one of the best in North Carolina for a town of its size. The mills should be congratulated on having a baseball and football field of this kind. The High School should not be ashamed of its gridiron, and if you don't believe it look over other places—you will wake up.

Knute Rokene is in bad luck. Only last week we found out that two of his players are on the injured list and now he has only one hundred and eighteen players left. How can Notre Dame have a winning team this season? We are puzzled.

A good tip: Styles for the coming football games, judging from what we observed at the Maryland-Carolina game. Orange Crush will be in vogue for the man who prefers a chaser. Four out of five had an Orange Crush and the fifth was hunting one. Oh my! Those drastic Prohibition laws.

Take Your Pick, You Can't Go Wrong

A local boy who has held the spotlight around these parts for quite a while in sports will pick the winners each week in football. Here is his selection for this week:

STATE
Wake Forest over N. C. State.
Georgia over Carolina at Athens.
Navy over Duke at Annapolis.
Davidson over Citadel at Charlotte.
Guilford College over Newport News Apprentices at Newport News.
Roanoke Rapids over Greenville at Halifax Fair.

Chile will soon have its first airplane factory, a branch of an American plant.
