JACKETS TIE FOR CONFERENCE TOP

WELDON NO PLAY

Cancels Game Here Tomorrow; Nashville To Play Instead

It is with a great deal of regret that we have to announce that the Roanoke Rapids High School will not play Weldon on Friday at Simmons Field. This, we understand is not the fault of the regulars of Weldon High nor of Mr. Oakes, the coach, or of Mr. Oakes, the superintendent. They are all in favor of the above mentioned contest. We understand that many of the citizens of Weldon do not care for the game on account of some misunderstanding last season. By inquiry we find that the game last year was never scheduled, so it could not have been canceled by the Jackets.

There has always been great athletic rivalry between Weldon and Roanoke Rapids, also between Emporia and Roanoke Rapids. Rapids. Could not a meeting be held between the three schools, rules laid out, things outlined so that Roanoke Rapids could have both of our rival towns in their schedule? Pick out three men from each town, not from the schools and let them come together and lay down rules, then go by them. By pulling together you go forward to success, by each one pulling in a different direction you go backward. Football is a maker of good citizens, and that is what the three towns need. Good citizens make good towns.

The Yellow Jackets will clash with Nashville High School here Friday at 3:30 p. m. The visitors will come to town with the reputation of having one of the fastest eleven in the East. They will outweigh the locals in the line and backfield both. The Jackets will start the same team that defeated Greenville last week. Coach Hoyle is anxious to come out on the top end of the score. The Jax have not lost but one game this year and that was to the highly touted Washington outfit.

Chuck Collins suspended Magnor and Cole for smoking one cigarette. The company who makes the brand they smoked will miss a master stroke by not advertising the facts. Any man who will break the sacred training rule for that kind of cigarette—well! It must be a great smoke. Wonder what brand it was.

3,000 SEE FAIR GAME

Rip Thru Greenville For 26-0 Victory While Washington Is Losing

Staging a fierce comeback after losing to the strong Washington High School eleven the week before, the Roanoke Rapids Yellow Jackets ran thru and around the Greenville High School Greenbacks last Friday at the Halifax County Fair to win by the score of 26-0.

It was the locals fourth Conference game and was their third win. They are now in a tie for first place as Washington lost to Ayden last week 6 to 0.

Mills and Captain Starkes ripped the light Greenville line to shreds during the game, both of them exhibiting some of the best line plunging that has been seen here since the days of "Husky" Johnson. Running along with these two backs were the end runs staged by Fleetwood Sullivan and Jimmie Womble. The latter made a thrilling play on Roanoke's second touchdown by diving at least seven feet across the goal-line for a touchdown.

Speight, who went in for Womble did some nice work, in fact the whole so-called second backfield did some nice work with Dickens and Speight leading the parade. Cullom did some outstanding work in the line along with Clyde Mills and Womble.

The game was one of the main features of the Halifax County Fair; almost three thousand people saw the game. The local highs for the first time this year was working together, the line and backfield worked as a unit and there is no doubt that Coach Hoyle has the team right for the future.

Washington High School defeated Roanoke Rapids and pulled the fast traveling Jackets from the top perch of the Northeastern Athletic Conference. It was pretty tough for the Rapids. They want the championship this year and that 1929 verdict in favor of the Washingtonites did not sound championship like. Along comes Ayden High School whom Roanoke Rapids defeated in the first game of the season 7-0 and hands Washington a 6-0 defeat and puts three teams, maybe one or two more tied for the top. Now all the Jackets are happy. It means that they still have a good chance to tie Washington, or Ayden maybe, with a little luck go thru the season with no more defeats and thereby win the championship. And if not that, then have a chance to play a post-season series game to decide the whole matter.

Duke furnished the big upset of last Saturday with a 19 to 0 victory over the Navy. It was their first time to come out on the long end of the score in a long series with the Middies. From now on, the county will sit up and take notice of the Millionaires.

Local Theatre To Show Film Treat

The management of the Peoples Theatre announced a rare treat for its patrons next Wednesday and Thursday.

Ruth Chatterton and Clive Brook will appear in another fascinating talkie—one which is said to contain an even greater amount of dramatic and romantic punch than the two earlier successes of these capable favorites.

The picture is "Anybody's Woman." It is the story of the vagrancies of a misfit marriage.

Brook is seen as the prosperous young lawyer, who indulges in a prolonged orgy after his wife divorces him to marry another man. One morning after a night of insensate drunkenness, he wakes to find that he has been married to Ruth Chatterton, an unrefined, tawdry, down-at-the-heels actress.

His friends forsake him after he "straightens out," and begins again his respectable pursuit of business. Ruth sees him losing his prestige and decides that she will leave him for the sake of his standing in society. She goes away, although she loves him more than anything else in the world. He carries on without her, but before long discovers that there is an emptiness in life that can only be filled by this woman.

The very capable supporting cast includes Paul Lukas, suave continental personality, who scored successes in "The Wolf of Wall Street," "Halfway to Heaven," "The Devil's Holiday" and "Young Eagles"; Tom Patricola, song and dance comedian of the Broadway musicals.

Take Your Pick—You Can't Go Wrong

Our dope man only missed one guess last week, that was the Duke-Navy clash and you cannot blame him for that. A miss of that kind will happen in the best of families. You will have to hand it to the old boy, he was clicking. Take his tips, he's wise, I tell you. Here goes.

Duke over Walford at Spartanburg, S. C. Gaillard over Atlantic Christian College at Guilford, Mississippi A. M. over N. C. State at Raleigh. Wake Forest over Mercer at Wilmington, Carolina over Tennessee at Knoxville, Tenn. Vanderbilt over Alabama. Davidson over F. P. L. at Davidson.

The Yellow Jackets had better be more careful about making those extra points. Many a football game has been decided by one point. Captain Starkes fumbled away two in the Greenville game. Fred Mills seems about the only sure extra point possibility in the whole squad. And if his line back don't get it over, why we go without.

Albie Booth, our choice for All-American quarter-back, did everything a good football player does and ran rings around Brown, which the week before had beaten Princeton. Yale did a good comeback after its defeat by Georgia last week and meets Army, conqueror of Harvard, next Saturday.

Coach Hoyle has been bearing down on some of the boys who thought they were pretty good. Go to it Coach. Make men out of them as well as football players.

Nothing is more pathetic than the High School star who goes away to College to discover that he is not as hot as he thought he was.

I was talking to a friend of mine, who saw the Navy-Duke clash and according to what he said the Duke backfield with Murray leading the charge, romped thru the Navy line at will. Kosky, who calls signals from an end position was another outstanding star of the contest. It is very seldom that an opponent of minor importance takes a game from a larger school. Duke was "swindled" in between two of Navy's big games to give them a "breather." It turned out to be a boomerang.

North Carolina State has signed Bob Warren to help coach the Wolf Pack backfield. This combination of Warren, Sermon and Slaughter should put State into their rightful place in the football sun. Van Liew evidently did not make the grade. Via the grapevine we got the facts that when the Pack went to Florida to play the Gators that the boys from East Raleigh had only four plays. It is a known fact that the whole team has been sore and upset ever since the Davidson game. When there is a friction on any kind of team you cannot win. State made a master stroke when they made a change.

Old Knute Rockne used a little psychology on his Notre Dame boys and told them Carnegie Tech would beat them two, three, maybe six touchdowns. Their Irish rose and Tech went down under a 2-6 drubbing.

Poor old Tennessee. They lost their first game on four years last Saturday when the Alabama tide flowed over them 18-6. Another good record gone blowie.

Carolina lost to Georgia 26 to 0. They didn't have a chance against the team that beat Yale.

Oochie will be glad to know that Catawampus beat Fort Bragg 71 to 0. Oochie's final won one. Beat V. M. I. 13 to 0.
