

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

We wish to announce that on and after Monday, December 15, this store will be operated on a Strictly Cash Basis. The elimination of our Credit System will become effective Saturday Night, December 13, at Midnight.

Recent changes in the retail business have prompted us to adopt this cash policy. By doing so we believe we can better serve our customers and sell our merchandise at lower cost.

For the past five years we have extended credit privileges to our customers. We take this opportunity to thank them for their patronage and sincerely hope we can be of service to them in the future.

Appetizers in the Diet

Pickles, Familiar Aids to Mealtime Zest, Used in Many Ways

MANY of us, remembering how good grandmother's meals used to taste, recall how much hungrier we got after crunching a few pickles from the familiar old pickle-dish that usually graced her table.

Pickles have been universal favorites since long before grandmother's day. People not only liked them for their taste, but recognized them as appetite-provokers.

Nowadays, these old mealtime standbys take on a new measure of dietary importance because of the increasing recognition of their health properties. Particularly in winter, when fresh green vegetables are often hard to get, they help to supply us with needed carbohydrates, mineral salts and vitamins.

Moreover, pickles fit well into present-day menus because they are used in so many ways to give the modern decorative touch to meals.

With a bottle or two of pickles on the pantry shelf, you are prepared to give a new note of interest and modernity to any course in the menu.

For example, a new piquancy of flavor and color is added to a fruit cocktail by the addition of sliced sweet pickles. In salads pickles are popular as ingredients of the salad itself, of the dressings, and as garnishes for the completed dish.

Stuffed dill slices make an attractive and tasty salad:

Select two large dill pickles and remove centers, using an apple corer or a long sharp knife. Pack the centers full of pimiento cream cheese. Chill. Cut in slices and arrange several on lettuce leaves or the tender inside leaves of cabbage. Garnish with mayonnaise. These slices may be used also as garnish for other salads, or for meat platters; also on rounds of toast for a canapé.

A delicious tartar sauce to serve with fish is made as follows: Add one tablespoon of finely chopped cucumber pickle and one teaspoon minced onion to 2/3 cup of mayonnaise.

Vinaigrette dressing is made simply by adding chopped sour pickle, green pepper, and minced parsley to French dressing.

Pickle Pyramids
Arrange in the order named, crosswise slices of the following pickles on top of one another to form a pyramid: slice of dill pickle, slice of sweet dill pickle, slice of sweet pickle. Use these pyramid garnishes for a border around a platter of cold sliced meat or salad.

Pickle Flower
Arrange on a large bowl of prepared fish or meat salad just before serving. Arrange thin crosswise slices of dill pickles to form a circle about six inches in diameter. Arrange thin crosswise slices of pickled beets in a circle inside the dill. Fill the center of the beet circle with mayonnaise. Garnish mayonnaise with a slice of sweet pickle.

Bacon and Pickle Sandwich
Six slices crisply broiled bacon, chopped; 3 medium size dill pickles, chopped; 1/4 cup mayonnaise. Combine bacon, pickles and mayonnaise. Spread on buttered bread. Makes six sandwiches, 4 x 4 inches.

Mrs. William Alligood, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Edmondson, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Edmondson, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Lamplsey, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Speight, Misses Catherine and Buddy Jackson, Virginia Newsom and Lurline Hardy and Messrs Wilbur Anderton and Jimmie Edmondson.

Miss Alice Gaylord celebrated her sixth birthday with a party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jonh Gaylord, on Jackson Street last Monday afternoon. Games were played after which a birthday cake bearing six lighted candles was cut and refreshments consisting of fruit, cake, cocoa and mints were served to Misses Hael Pridgen, Doris Moors, Edith Edwards, Jean Shell, Louise Wells, Betty Sue Taylor, Geraldine Radcliffe, and Masters Rudolph Edwards, Joe Wells, Jr., Charles Radcliffe and John Fisher, Jr. Alice received many gifts from her little friends.

Last Tuesday evening Mrs. L. C. Howell entertained with six tables of bridge at her home near Camp's Store. The home was beautifully decorated for this occasion. Mrs. Alvis George won ladies' high score prize, a box of dusting powder. Mrs. M. F. White won low score prize, a waste paper basket. To Mr. George Burgwyn was given the gentlemen's prize, an ash tray. A salad course was served. Those from Rosemary and Roanoke Rapids were Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Pope, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Brown, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Hyman, Mrs. Alvis George, Mrs. M. F. White, Mrs. Bernard Edmondson, Mr. and Mrs. Bunch, Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Murphrey, Miss Louise Lassiter, Mr. Frank Pittman and Mr. George Burgwyn.

Monday evening at her home on Hamilton Street, Mrs. Frank Hawley was hostess to the Monday Night Bridge Club. An interesting game was enjoyed at these tables. Potted plants were used in the living room and dining room. The high score for the evening was made by Mrs. Geo. Hayes, who was given a flowering primrose as a prize. A salad course was served to the following players, Mesdames Allen Zillicoffer, Alfred Pruden, Hugh Camp, Cooper Grizzard George Hayes, J. W. Ross, Carroll Wilson, Misses Margaret Clark and Ruth Transou.

Mr. Hugh Camp attended the football game at Chapel Hill Saturday.
