THE TEXTILE ALL STARS VS MERCHANTS

CHRISTMAS STEAM

Walking up the Avenue the other day we passed a bunch of the High School Girls basketball team. I noticed that they were giving me several hard looks as I was approaching. One of them said, "We are mad with you about your write up of the Elizabeth City game." I wanted to know why. Soon I learned that the reason was the nicknames I applied to several of the players. "Spec" Hines, who holds down a guard position said that she did not mind about hers, but Mildred Tudor objected to the name "Shorty." Personally, I think it would be a good idea for the girls to have names like that. Now, for instance, we would call Miss Cameron "Slim" or call Captain Stainback "Runt," or we would call Miss Wilson "Altitude." We have several more in mind and will try and work them up before our next writeup of a game.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

We wish all the readers of the Sport page a Merry Christmas, plenty of (hic) good cheer and everything that goes with it. We hope that the New Year will bring you many joys (hic).

NEW YEARS FOOTBALL

Every day we pick up the News and Observer and read about the mythical Carolina Duke game that will be played for charity. It brings an idea. Why not have a big mythical football game here on New Year's Day between the Textile All-Stars and the Merchants All-Stars. The gate fee will be two dollars (mythical) and it will be one of the best games ever played in the town. All gate receipts will go to the Associated Charities for the use of the needy. Of course you will want to know who will play. I have picked out a team that would do credit to the Textile industry, and another team to represent the merchants that cannot be beat.

to referee the game and says that if anyone, especial "Doc" Martin and Ned Manning try to chew tobacco in the game that they will have to go out immediately.

Textiles	Line Up	Merchants
Towe	Pos.	Martin
W. Manning	FB	Jenkins
Cannon	HB	Matkins
McGee	HB	Shell
Mullen	QB	Matthews
Williams	RE	Wade
Peace	RT	Taylor
N. Manning	RG	Wilson
Jackson	C	Weissner
Taylor	LG	Taylor
Camp	LT	Wells

SPORT BRIEFS

We think that our mythical football game between the Merchants and the Textile All Stars will go over quite big. You can see that both teams are strong and with McGee and Shell at the quarterback positions it should be a nip and tuck battle. The merchants boast of a great fullback in Doc Martin who can rip thru a line to a fare ye well.

We thank Old Timer for his Christmas gift, "they hit the spot." We would like to thank him personally but as he is unknown we will have to be content with this little writeup. Every time I light one of the cigarettes that he sent me I will think of the respective merits of the various Roanoke Rapids teams and dream of days gone by, never to return.

Weldon Boy Honored By Wake Forest Society

Wake Forest, Dec. 24.—Herman W. Farber of Weldon was signally honored last Tuesday upon being "tapped" into Golden Bough, the highest honor society on the Wake Forest College campus.

Golden Bough is composed of men who by popular vote among students and faculty seem to have the highest qualities of character, scholarship, and leadership.

Besides this distinction, Farber is a varsity track man and can trot two miles with the best of them. He is a senior medical student and will graduate on June 4.

Ad In The Herald Quoted By National Insurance Magazine

The December number of "Service Bulletin" an insurance magazine with national circulation carries the following item:

An Exception Insurance Newspaper Ad. The close tie-up of the insurance business with the news was strikingly illustrated when the Bounds Insurance Agency of Rosemary, N. C., published one of the most effective newspaper advertisements which we have ever seen.

In a space of two columns by eleven inches, this enterprising agency ran a story and photograph of a local accident that happened at South Rosemary.

The advertisement is titled, "Where The Car Hit." Below this caption is a photograph of a most thoroughly wrecked filling station. In a boxed space follows an account of the accident, which includes the mention of the fact that the driver of the car suffered the loss of his right arm.

The balance of the advertisement is devoted to short, pointed paragraphs on the subject of automobile liability and property damage insurance and mention of the $10.00 personal accident automobile policy.

It is truly an attention compelling, thought provoking advertisement combining all the necessary qualifications of timeliness—local news interest and powerful sales appeal.

Our congratulations to this alert agency and we feel sure that good results may be traced to this publicity.

Drive On To Raise $12,000 for Louisburg

Efforts on the part of the Trustees of Louisburg College to raise approximately $12,000 among the members of the North Carolina Conference and friends of the institution between this date and January 10, 1931, for the purpose of supplementing the income of the College to meet its operating expenses for the spring term are meeting with encouraging responses on all sides. There is a spirit of cooperation on the part of the students, faculty, alumnae and friends of the College throughout the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our dear baby, Vergie Mason Askew, who died December 28, 1928.

Heaven retain her treasures
In her lonely casket sleep
There is a sad but sweet remembrance
Of the one we could not keep.

No one knows how much we miss you
Miss you more and more each day,
And the moon and stars are shining
On that sad and lonely grave.

Dear Vergie, your place will forever
be vacant,
In our home is bitter pain,
For the one we love so dearly
We always hope to meet again.

When all our work is over
When God calls all his children home
That's when we shall meet again, dear
Around that great and golden throne.

Your Mother and Daddy.

It will soon be time for baseball again. We wonder if the Textile League will function this summer. We hope so. It was a boon to baseball in this town. Under the proper management this league will be an asset to the Twin Cities.

Please Santa Claus: Bring Carroll Wilson a safety razor. Bring Ned Manning a plug of chewing tobacco. Bring Roanoke Rapids a good basketball team, and bring Old Timer a new pair of underwear. That's all, Santa.

We think it would be a good idea for Captain Sullivan of the Yellow Jackets to call for practice immediately after Christmas, before school starts. If the boys are willing which I am sure they are, it would be quite a start for Coach Hoyle to return and find the squad in good condition and ready to start the conference schedule.
