This is the Enna Jettick Aerocar which visited here yesterday afternoon on its tour of the country. The car was parked in front of J. L. Weisser's, local agent for Enna Jettick shoes, where it was viewed by hundreds of curious persons during its two hour visit.

The Aerocar was built by Curtis and is attached to the coupe in front by a patented connection which takes care of shocks and jerks. In the rear are a telephone which connects with the front car, a radio, wicker and plush furniture, a barometer and ship's clock. R. J. Mangum was the salesman and J. Lewandowski was in charge of the Aerocar. The car made the trip here from Elizabeth City in 2 1-2 hours. It is due in Morganton, 40 miles from Asheville at 4 p. m. today.

honor of Mrs. J. E. Cox. Salad cake and punch were served. Those present of Circle No. 1 were Rev. and Mrs. V. H. Grantham, Mrs. J. H. Evans, Mrs. J. B. Taylor, Mrs. C. W. Bailey, Miss Virginia Hardison, Mrs. M. W. Hardison, Mrs. Mucy Neal, Mrs. Jno. Pendleton, Mrs. H. L. Finch, Mrs. O. C. Mason, Mrs. Bill Alligood, Mrs. Frank Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cox, Mrs. W. L. Lewter. Visitors were Miss Nellie Lucas and J. B. Bogham.

Mrs. Wm. Medlin was hostess on last Wednesday afternoon to the A. & C. Bridge Club at her apartment in the Citizens Bank building. Thru-out the apartment were potted plants and cut flowers which made a background for the two tables of players. A box of dusting powder was presented Mrs. Jack Young as winner of high score. A salad course was served at five o'clock. Guests were Mesdames Jack Young, Clarence Grimmer, J. M. Jackson, W. C. Williams, Steve Lipscomb, S. J. Bounds, David Traynham and Miss Susan Holliday.

Mr. Eugene Sawyer and Mr. Bill Van Horne of Norfolk were the guests of Miss Olga Boyd, Washington Street, Rosemary, Sunday.

Woman's Club Holds Monthly Meet Monday

On Monday afternoon the Womens Club held its regular monthly meeting in the Domestic Science rooms of the High School. The president, Mrs. Fred Brown presided. About twenty five members responded to roll call. There were several important items of business discussed and committees were appointed. After the regular business meeting a program arranged by Mrs. C. A. Wyche, chairman of the program committee for the Garden Department was given. Mrs. Wyche made a short talk. Mrs. R. P. Beckwith read an essay by Bacon on Gardens. Mrs. Charlena Hart read a paper "Why I Plant a Garden." Following this, Mrs. A. Meikle read a paper on "Planting the Back Yard." The program was closed by Mrs. George Hayes reading a poem "The Garden of Dainty Priscilla."

During the program helpful garden hints were given by the club members.

Mrs. A. L. Taylor announced that the Better Homes Department would meet next week with Mrs. R. P. Beckwith.

The programs given at these club meetings are helpful to the women of the community and it is the desire of the club that more members will avail themselves of this opportunity. The club is to help solve the many problems of home, garden, civic and community betterment. Will you join with us and help?

On Monday, February 2, Miss Margaret Clark was hostess to the Monday Night Bridge Club at her home at Rosemary Lodge. Places for playing were found by valentine tallies. At each place was a small heart-shaped box of candy. A bottle of Coty's perfume was given as a prize to Mrs. Geore Hayes as winner of high score. A salad course was served at ten fifteen to the following players, Mesdames Howard Pruden, J. W. Ross, Julian Allsbrook, Alfred Martin, Cooper Grizzard, David Traynham, George Hayes, Emma Craven, Misses Elizabeth Bagley, Hart Sheridan, Martha Craddock, Ruth Transou.

Mrs. B. F. Armstrong and daughters, Virginia and Jack and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bright sent the weekend in Columbia visiting relatives and friends.
