Newly elected members are J. W. Southerland of Goldsboro, Mary Jo Swicegood of Spencer, Maude Schaub of Raleigh, H. B. James of Oakboro, S. B. Satterwhite of Oxford and H. C. Yelverton of Fremont.

Officers elected for next year are: C. E. Brake of Rocky Mount, president; C. N. Cone, Greensboro, vice-president; Mary Jo Swicegood, secretary; H. C. Yelverton, treasurer; Professor A. M. Fountain, historian and E. L. Cloyd, dean of students, as chaplain.

New officers succeed W. T. Mast of Valle Crucis, president, W. H. Brake, Rocky Mount, Vice president; J. B. Gurley secretary and R. G. Vick treasurer, both of Rosemary.

To be selected for this society, a student must have never failed on a college course.

J. B. Gurley will also be commissioned second lieutenant in the U. S. officers Reserve Corps.

Chadwick - Barrow Wedding Wednesday

A simple but very impressive wedding took place Wednesday morning at All Saints Church, when Miss Margaret Barrow became the bride of Mr. Willard Chadwick, of New York. Rev. J. N. Bynum, pastor of the bride, officiated, the ring ceremony being used. Lovely music was rendered before and during the ceremony by Miss Mary Traynham Wyche. To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march the groom entered the church from the chair room. The bride entered with her sister, Miss Constance Barrow. She carried a corsage of sweet peas and delphinium. She was met at the altar by the groom and the vows were taken.

The Church was beautifully decorated. The bride was lovely, dressed in a grey ensemble. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Barrow and has lived here for several years. She has, for the last year and a half been living in New Jersey and New York. Mr. Chadwick is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. E. Chadwick of Providence, R. I. He holds a responsible position with the Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Chadwick left on the ten o'clock train for points North. They will make their home in Elizabeth, N. J.
