

SEWANEE A. C. VS ALL STARS HERE SATURDAY

CHAMPS OF PORTSMOUTH-NORFOLK BRING FAST CLUB

Due here Saturday June 6th, with one of the fastest amateur clubs in Tidewater Virginia, the Sewanee Athletic Club of Portsmouth and Norfolk will unload their heavy artillery at Simmons Park beginning at 3:30 P. M., and with all their might endeavor to sink the Rosemary-Roanoke Rapids All-Stars. "Minnie" Manning, former big league and Virginia League pitcher will head the visiting delegation of ball clouters. Manning coaches and also does his bit on the mound for Sevanee. The All-Stars will romp out on the diamond with big Jeff Welch directing them from the bench and Fletcher Dickens, former N. C. State star acting as field captain.

Among those who will probably see action in the contest will be "Flip" Edmondson, N. C. State athlete, Dennis Johnson, Guilford College star, "Ikey" Johnson, Guilford College outfielder, Knowles former Texas League player, Willie Prince, former Fayetteville Highlander Star, Russell Birdsong local hot corner artist, Burnice Ryals, heavy hitting outfielder of the Baseos, Bill Alligood, Bernard Henry Love, "Monk" Crowder, Kim Edmondson, fast sandlot catcher, rey, former Florida State league star, Wilmer Outland, sensational Baseo catcher, "Lefty" Carroll star local southpaw, Vester Finch, dependable curve ball pitcher of the Baseos, Peter Ferrell, former Army star, Mitchel Shearin.

From this local talent coach Welch should be able to pick a team that can compare with any amateur team. The contest will start at exactly 3:30 p. m., and manager Clyde Liske announces that the Norfolk Navy Yard will play here the following Saturday at exactly the same hour.

Troy Goodman Makes Athletic Fraternity

Raleigh, June 4.—Six additional State College athletes and two managers were informally initiated into the College Monogram Club last Friday night.

The new men are Red Watt, Statesville, track; Troy Goodman, Roanoke Rapids, track and baseball; Bill Ebey Hamlet, baseball; Ned Wood, Graham, baseball; Arthur Wilson, Raleigh, track; and the two track managers, I. F. Roper of Welcome and W. E. Lawrence of Scotland Neck.

James "Twee" Floyd of Salisbury, recently elected captain of the 1932 track team, is president of the club.

Defeat Henderson In Hard Fought Match

The Chockoyotte golfers journeyed down to Henderson last Wednesday and defeated the Henderson drivemen by a score of 20 to 17, which was very close. Out of the fifteen Chockoyotte entries, eight defeated their opposing partners. The Henderson course has 18 holes and was very irregular to our golfers. They were not used to playing on such a hilly course.

Dutch Seifert, a Chockoyotte member from Weldon, led the field by shooting an 84; Pruden shot an 85; Beckwith and Goodman 87, Cannon 88 Camp 90, Manning 91, Dickens and Bradley 92, Jackson 93, Gates 94 and Norwood 94, Speight 95, Weathers and Allbrook 98. Hugh Camp interested the golfers with his terrific drives, but he was off on his putting to bring his score up to 90.

Kings Win Pennant

With Knowles pitching stellar ball thruout the 9 innings and his team mates supporting him in fine style, the Silver Kings defeated the Baseos 12-7 in the final game of the so-called Textile League. Finch, Birdsong and Shearin divided the pitching duties for the Baseos, while Speight, Outland, Shearin and Ryals were the hitting stars. Knowles led both clubs at bat with four out of five hits. The series ended with the Silver Kings winning five out of six games played.

Jackson Noses Out Knock Outs 5 to 2

Last Saturday the Knock Outs lost their first game of the season when the Jackson Bees defeated them 5 to 2. Reeves Taylor, captain of the 1932 Wake Forest baseball team, pitched for the Jackson team and the Knock Outs reached him for nine hits. Six of these hits came in the second inning, but the locals only scored two runs. Browning headed the Knock Out batsmen by knocking out three singles.

McNeil pitched steady ball after the first two innings during which he was reached for a home run and a triple and two singles. With these hits bunched together they managed

Slagels Lake Team

Slagels Lake will again sponsor a baseball team according to A. A. Slagle, manager of the amusement place in Virginia. Mr. Slagle announces that the team will be under the management of "Pete" Joyner, Wake Forest College star and will number some of the fastest amateur players in these parts.

"IKEY" JOHNSON WINS LETTER
"Ikey" Johnson, former Jacket athletic star won his letter in baseball at Guilford College. Johnson played outfield in high school here and played center in football. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Johnson of Rosemary.
