Mrs. W. C. Allsbrook gave her annual dinner party at her home on Washington Street in honor of the school faculty who make their home with her during the school session. Just before the dinner was over Miss Lee Arnold started a note around the table which read, "Ayer-Goodall, 1931." Miss Arnold requested that each one as they read the note to keep the secret so it would be enjoyable by all as they read. It was a complete surprise to Miss Ayler's many friends. The bride elect, Miss Bernice Ayler, has been a member of the school faculty here for four years and is quite popular. Mr. F. M. Goodall is a prominent farmer of Banco, Va., the home of Miss Ayler.
