Liske-Clark

Miss Elmer Irene Clark became the bride of Clyde Daniel Liske Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock, the wedding taking place at the home of the bride on Washington Street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. E. Kirk, pastor of the Rosemary Baptist Church, using the impressive ring ceremony. The living room was decorated with Shasta daisies, ferns and cut flowers. The vows were spoken before an improvised altar of ivy, ferns and long leaf pine. Silver candelabra held glowing candles placed in beautiful arrangement around the room. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Clady's Cox played "Hearts and Flowers." Miss Agatha Moore sang "At Dawning" and "O Promise Me." To the strains of the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin, the bride, attired in a lovely blue crepe dress with corresponding accessories, wearing a shoulder corsage of valley lilies and sweetheart roses, entered with the bridegroom and proceeded to the altar. During the ceremony Miss Cox played "To A Wild Rose," and Mendelssohn's Wedding March was used as a recessional. Mr. and Mrs. Liske left immediately for a motor trip thru the Valley of Virginia and other points of interest. The bride is the attractive and only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Clark of Roanoke Rapids. She has lived here for a number of years and is quite popular with the younger set. She is a graduate of the Roanoke Rapids High School and of Blackstone College. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Liske of Mt. Gilead, N. C. He has made his home here for the past few years and holds a responsible position with the Patterson Mills Company. He is a young man of fine business ability and quite popular.
