WOMANS CLUB IN SESSION

Monthly Meeting Monday Heard Interesting Reports and Program

RUSH RELIEF WORK

On Monday afternoon the Woman's Club held their regular monthly meeting over the Peoples Theatre. The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. C. A. Wyche. The club members repeating the Collect in unison.

Reports from the various departments were given. Mrs. R. P. Beckwith asked cooperation for the Red Cross in the making and mending clothes, the sewing to be done in the cannery near the Rosemary Mill. She asked for volunteers. Mrs. T. M. Jenkins asked that different ladies volunteer to serve in the Red Cross drive. Mrs. George Hayes asked that any one who knew of a family who would need help at Christmas would please secure ages and names of children or grown people and report same to the Associated Charities.

A report of the 14th District meeting of Women's Clubs which was recently held in Oxford, was given by Mrs. C. A. Wyche. She gave extracts from an announcement by the North Carolina had been selected to set an example for highway beautification in the United States.

The Garden club, a department of the Woman's Club, is sponsoring a tree planting program for this year, and this department will plant a tree for every tree planted by another in this town. They ask that every tree planted be registered in this department and the name of the tree given. The goal for the year is five hundred trees. While North Carolina is making the State highways an example for beautification, let's do our bit to make our town an example for beauty.

The program for the afternoon was under the direction of Mrs. Frank Joyner, chairman of the Civics Department, and was one of the most interesting programs ever given by the club. The subject was "Young People."

Two musical selections were given, "Old Fashioned Girl," and "That Boy of Mine," sung by Miss Ella Lee Taylor and Mr. E. E. Lehman, accompanied by Mrs. E. P. Brenner at the piano and Mrs. W. A. China and Mr. Harvey Saunders playing the violin.

Miss Maude Hunter gave a talk on methods used in the schools to raise the standard of our young people, and she also told of ways in which the elder people could help to uphold these standards. She told of the girl reserve organization and of the high things they stood for. She also read the pledge card that the girls have to sign before they can become a member. Following Miss Hunter, Mrs. Joyner introduced Rev. J. H. Shore, of Weldon, who gave an address on "The Duties of Parents."

His theme was unison of the home, that the responsibility of the child did not rest on one parent but on both father and mother. He said in our modern way of living that often times the child did not come in contact with both parents except at the dining table; that the home was often only a boarding and lodging house; that parents assumed a grave responsibility in rearing children and many times the future of the child was due to neglect of this responsibility.

About twenty-five members were present.

Mrs. Nancy Braswell and son, B. G. Braswell and Mrs. E. L. Pike of Enfield visited Mrs. Ann Daniel Sunday.

C. W. Jackson of Portsmouth, Va., visited V. C. Daughtry Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Perkins, who have been living in Norfolk for the past several months, have returned to make their home with their daughter, Mrs. Nannie Peel, on Hamilton St.

Mrs. W. C. Allsbrook is ill at her home on Washington St.

Dennis Johnson spent Monday in Emporia, Va.

Miss Mary Jackson has returned to her home in Emporia, Va., after a two weeks visit with Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Joyner spent Sunday in Rocky Mount.

6TH WIN

Yellow Jackets Wallop Aulan-der 47 to 0—Use 40 Players

Coach Hoyle put in 40 players last Friday who ran up a score of 40 points and held Aulan-der to 1 lone first down that came in the closing minutes of play. This was the Jack-ets' sixth consecutive victory of the season and they have kept their home slate clean so far. The varsity played only three minutes during the entire game, scoring 14 points. They ran seven plays to score in the first quarter and four plays to score in the third quarter. The second and third teams played the remainder of the game and other reserves saw action. Aulan-der didn't offer much along the line of offensive and defensive drive, the locals smearing all of their plays except the pass that netted them a first down. The two teams weighed about the same, but the Jax had the faster backs. This game was expected to be a close one as the Jax won last year by a score of 14 to 6. This game will be the last set-up of the season, as the Bees have a tough card from now on.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES

Coming Sunday, there will be no services at Roanoke Rapids Catholic Chapel, but there will be a High Mass at the Scotland Neck Church, beginning at 8 o'clock, 751 N. Main St., according to an announcement by the Rector, Father McCourt. The Roanoke Rapids Choir will sing at the Scotland Neck Mass. Confessions will be heard for forty minutes before services. The sermon will be on "Satan's Last Stand." Holy Communion will be given during the Mass, which will be followed by Benediction and Sunday School. No Mass at Tarboro this Sunday, but at Rocky Mount, corner S. Franklin and Chester Streets, 11 a. m. Everybody invited to all services.

HI SCHOOL PTA MEETS

The regular monthly meeting of the Jr-Sr High School Parent-Teachers was held on last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. J. E. Kirk presided and the usual form of business was conducted. Mrs. T. M. Jenkins, chairman of the Welfare Department asked that teachers cooperate with this department and report any child who needs clothes, etc. Miss Sara Carson is chairman of magazines committee.

Mrs. F. G. Jarman, chairman of library has plans for raising funds, which will be used in the near future. Mrs. P. A. Reid, chairman of program committee arranged a program as follows:

Miss Martha Carson made a talk on the value of the study period. Miss Martha Craddock talked on the subject "How Parents Could Help the Child in Its Relation to the School." Prof. C. W. Davis talked at length on "Discipline."

A room in the school has been fitted for serving hot lunches. Mrs. T. W. M. Long appealed to all present to cooperate to the fullest in the Red Cross Drive which will be put on this month.

About fifty teachers and parents were present.

The Womens Missionary Union held their monthly meeting Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. M. C. Womble. Mrs. A. P. Mustian led the devotions and Mrs. L. R. Clements, Mrs. J. H. Hines, Mrs. G. E. Buckner and Mrs. M. H. Hedgepeth gave talks on the subject "Europe and Palestine." Those present were: Mesdames C. N. Wheeler, M. C. Womble, A. P. Mustian, J. H. Hines, M. H. Hedgepeth, J. M. Rice, Ivey Mohorn, Louis Grimmer, G. E. Buckner, and L. R. Clements.

Little Miss Mary Norfleet Vick was hostess on Saturday afternoon at a halloween party given at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Vick. Halloween decorations were effectively carried out. Much fun was caused by pinning the stem on the pumpkin while blindfolded. Other games were enjoyed. Ice cream and cake were served for refreshments. Those present: Chas. and Lanier Davis, Margaret Joyner, Bill Pruden, Harry Weathers, Margaret Martin, David Dobbins, George Grizzard, Mary and Wm. Sanders, and Elizabeth Beckwith.

Episcopal Pageant

(Continued from page one) and Mr. Russell Buxton, Mrs. Clarence Grimmer as United Thanks Offering, accompanied by Blessings and Gifts, Miss Vernie Lyster and Miss Margaret Clark, and Miss Elizabeth Joyner as Supply, accompanied by Deborah and Dorcas, Miss Katherine Vick and Mrs. Ben Cullom, present and explain other parts of the work. The choir will play an important part in the portrayal, much of the action being supplemented by the singing of our most beloved hymns, in some of which the congregation joins. It is hoped that all who can will avail themselves of the privilege of enjoying this beautiful and impressive pageant.

As Quota and budget point out that loyal support is needed to carry on the necessary activities of the church, a silver offering will be taken.

1 Killed, Six Escape

SLAIN CONVICT WAS SENT FROM ALAMANCE

Burlington, Nov. 4.—George Cashwell, shot and killed by a guard at Caledonia prison farm late yesterday in the attempt of six men to escape—five of them succeeding—was sentenced from Alamance County for bigamy.

Cashwell took a high school girl from her home here, telling the parents they were going to a movie, and drove through the night to South Carolina where they were married.

He then took her to Asheville on the honeymoon and had returned as far as Greensboro when the young wife sitting in the passenger station, picked up a newspaper and noticed that a search was being made for her and Cashwell. He had led her to believe he was single.

Cashwell was arrested later and held in jail for trial. He had already served a sentence in the State's prison for automobile theft. Pleading guilty to the charge of bigamy, he was sentenced to four years.

WHY ARE MILLS AND SPECULATORS TRYING TO BUY COTTON?

If there is money in your cotton for them it stands to reason that you could make the same money yourself. Don't sell your cotton simply because you need ready cash. Ship it to us to be held until you want it sold. We will advance you what you want against it up to the customary proportion of its value.
