

In case of fire or for Police, Dial 668-1.

We will have to beg off this week and next if The Herald is not up to par. Reason: the Kiwanis Club Minstrel. Rehearsals every night and a lot of other things to do in connection with it in the daytime, doesn't give a fellow as much time as he usually has to sit back and think up things to say.

And to top things off and make it a pleasant week, the big press had a breakdown just as we started running the paper and we spent half of last night getting in touch with mechanics and procuring new parts from Richmond. The press was running again this afternoon.

The Kiwanis Club Minstrel is going to get the blame for a lot of our shortcomings. We had hoped to have the Special Edition out this week, but it won't be out before the last of next.
While the Minstrel is not exactly to blame, still it makes a good alibi.

We have said it before and repeat it: this show is going to be plenty hot entertainment. Of course, it is difficult to see anything concrete right now but things are beginning to shape up in grand style. See it on March 18.

On Thursday, March 17th, the ladies of the First Baptist Church ing which was postponed yesterday, will be held next Wednesday, March here Wednesday night, March 16, at the Baptist Church.

The Standard Grocery Co., has opened for business on Second Street.

The N. C. C. W. Club was entertained recently by Mrs. J. B. Ball at her home in Tillery, Miss Gladys Cox being joint hostess with Mrs. Ball.
Miss Annie Cherry, who has recently been to Washington delighted the club members with a talk on the Washington celebration and other interesting events in Washington's life.

NEGRO BABY BURNS TO DEATH AT HOME

A two year old Negro baby was burned to death here Tuesday morning when an older brother waved a piece of burning paper too near his clothing.

The clothes were ignited and the child's body was so badly burned that he died in the Roanoke Rapids Hospital less than 24 hours later.

It all happened at the home of Jas.
Daniel in Hodges town near the colored school. There were four children in the house at the time. Two girls, 6 and 9, were getting ready to go to school and the mother had stepped out to a neighbors to borrow something. The father was working at the woodpile near the house.

James, age 4, was playing near a cater, with Elwin, two years old, catching him. James thrust a piece of paper in the heater and flung it back. It caught the baby's clothing.
The mother heard the screams and ran back in the house and poured water on the burning child. It was rushed to the hospital where it died Tuesday morning. Funeral was yesterday.

The father heard the crying but thought the children were getting a whipping and went on cutting wood.

SELECT DELEGATES

For the first time in 16 years, Ha-

The Republicans have decided to run Just what those offices will be has not been decided yet but Republi-Walter Cherry, Messrs. Carter and Vest will represent the county at the State convention.

Chairman Carter stated there would be suitable candidates for several county offices.

The action of the County Republicans will add much zest to the Democratic primary and the finals in No-ifax County was the banner Democratic county in the State in 1928.

TROPHIES ON DISPLAY AT STORE

High School Winnings Grouped In Attractive Window
Display

ALL WON SINCE 1921

In the left wing window of Taylor's Drug Store in the South end is a display of old and young athletes and also of old and new trophies and honor bestowed upon the Roanoke Rapids High School since its athletic foundation in 1921.

There are picture of the girl basketball champs of the past there are pictures of the boys track teams of the past, and there is a picture of "Cow" Vaughan, who has gained a greater athletic distinction than any athlete that Roanoke Rapids has produced, when he was put on the all-Southern football team his senior year in college; he was awarded honorable mention by several sports writers for all-American.

Besides athletic trophies, there are debating and musical cups that were won by the Roanoke Rapids alumni.

There is a picture in the window of the basketball team of 1916, showing some of the town's early athletes such as Cooper Grizzard, Hurley King, Bill Norwood and Clarence Grimmer.
In all, there are fifteen trophies that fill up the window and they represent our school in championships of practically every extra-curricula activity of the school.

Along with the athletes are the coaching mentors of the past and present: Simpson, Manning and Hoyle.

Everyone should enjoy viewing this window set off with the High School colors of black and gold. If the High School wins the conference title this year, it will hold six of the twelve trophies that have been awarded since the foundation of the Conference in 1928.

MINSTREL MONARCHS BIG SHOW

Rehearsals Indicate Kiwanis Show Will Be Huge Success

Early indications point to the fact that "Minstrel Monarchs" the third annual Minstrel to be staged by the local Kiwanis Club for the benefit of underprivileged children, will be the biggest success in amateur minstrel history in the city, as interest in the show on the part of the director and all participants ran to feverish heights the latter part of the week.

Director John W. Hutchins, of the John B. Rogers Producing Co. of Fos-toria, Ohio, who are directing the show, has been loud in his praise of local talent, and the willingness and co-operation shown by all. The foundation laid for the last two years by the other two minstrel stages here has been solid, and has had its effect on bringing out the talents of local participants in this particular field of amateur theatrical effort.

When the curtain goes up at the High School auditorium Friday, March 18th, the audience will be treated to a rare evening of entertainment, which might really rival any Broadway show from a standpoint of fun, music and clean, wholesome entertainment.

With all of the old favorites back in the cast, and many new, clever recruits, "Minstrel Monarchs" promises to be an entertainment of the first rank, that will be long remembered. Tickets have been placed on sale already, and are going like "hot cakes" at the new low price of 75c for adults and only forty cents for children.

are eager for this return match.

and relatives.

iting friends and relatives

Abe Norinsky, former manager of R. Marks, Inc., which went into bankruptcy, was sentenced to two 18 months sentences in Federal court at Durham this morning.

Mrs. B. Marks, owner, was placed on probation for one year on one charge and another charge against her was dismissed by the judge.

The two charges against Norinsky were using the mails to defraud and concealing assets in the bankruptcy proceedings. Judge I. M. Meekins directed a verdict of not guilty in the case against Mrs. Marks on using the mails to defraud and placed her on a year's probation on the other charge.

A jury found Abe guilty of the charge of using the mails to defraud and the defendants submitted on the other charge. The judge decreed the two 18 months sentences should run concurrently and the district attorney made the statement he would join with the judge in asking for a parole after six months.

The sentence is to be served in Atlanta and is to start on April 18th.

Those from here who heard the trial say the prosecution had a very weak case and were astounded at the guilty verdict of the jury. The mail case hinged on financial statements of the B. Marks Co. sent to whole-salers in which it was charged certain liabilities were not shown, while the other case had to do with failure to list certain assets in the bankruptcy proceedings.
