40 Students To Sing In Concert Friday

The Music Department of the Roanoke Rapids High School is giving a concert Friday night in the High School auditorium at 8 o'clock. The mixed chorus of forty students won first place in the district contest at Rocky Mount Saturday, as did also the boys' glee club and the tenor solo sung by Norman Speight. The money from the concert will be used to help on the expenses of the trip to Greensboro. The music department desires the hearty cooperation of the school and the community.

JUNIOR-SR. RECEPTION AND DANCE

The Junior-Senior reception of 1932 will long be remembered by those who attended, as one of the most beautiful and entertaining programs that has ever been put on at the local High School. The reception was held in the High School gymnasium Monday night and lasted from 8 to 11. The Junior class acted as hosts and a very clever program was carried out which was under the supervision of Miss Ada Edwards, Junior class teacher.

The program was as follows: The guests coming in were met by the presidents of the Junior and Senior classes, the president of the student body, the principal, the superintendent, and several of the teachers and a few other high school leaders. The gym was arranged with seats for those present to sit and watch the program which was put on in seven different parts under the names of the days of the week. As it was leap year, the girls had cards with dates for the first six days and then in the last part of the program they could get any boy they wanted. The seven parts of the program consisted of different types of entertainment from a fiddlers convention to a melodrama. After this part of the program everyone was served with ice cream and cakes and then the couples took a stroll around the gym, The Rainbow Trail, where punch was served at three bowls.

Lois Smith was picked as the beauty queen of the Senior class and we may add that it was a close pick because the dignified Seniors have a large number of beautiful girls. Lois was crowned queen and sat on her throne the remainder of the reception.

Those present at the reception were the Junior and senior faculty and their wives, Miss Hearne, the School Board members and their wives, Mrs. Lee, the Junior and senior lads and lassies: Virginia Akers, Jessie Aaskew, Hetty Brown, Vera Bullock, Cornelia Batton, Viola Collier, Virginia Cooke, Lucille Davis, Edith Elmore, Pattie Harlow, Elizabeth Joyner, Evelyn Johnson, Olive Lamm, Gladys Merritt, Allie Moody, Leila Murray, Catherine Nethercutt, Gladys Pruden, Virginia Shaw, Hazel Taylor, Mildred Tudor, Chester Chase, Chester Allbrook, Zell Burnette, Leo Burton, Harry Cannon, Edward Clark, Wilton Dickens, Robert Daniels, Malcolm Daughtry, Clifton Floyd, John Glover, Rudolph Waters, Graham Dean, Howard Hawkins, Edgar Kirk, Larry Meade, Clyde Mills, John Ogletree, Coby Williams, Harvey Woodruff, Elmer Starke, Leonard Sullivan, Yates Brown, Randolph Constaphen, Haskell Dobbins, Edward Elmore, Elwyn Garner, William Grant, Roy Kenner, Dwight Moody, Phillip Newton, C. JAX SWAMP FARMVILLE

Jackets Account for Second Conference Win—Defeat Farmville 20 to 3

Burnette pitched his second game of the season at Farmville last Friday and let down the Farmville boys with two hits. Farmville made their three runs when they loaded the bases and then Burnette hit one batter and walked two to bring in three runs. The Jax infield looked rather wobbly and made several errors. Lefty Starkes and Freddie Mills led the locals at bat, Starkes getting two hits out of three times at bat and Mills hit a couple in five innings of play. The Jax have not met any stiff opposition in the Conference race yet, but when they play Greenville, who is undefeated in the Conference, they will go up against a pitcher who has a strike-out record averaging about 15 a game.

Pridgen caught the last two frames of the Farmville game and Burnette struck out the last seven batters that faced him. Most of the Jackets seven runs came from errors by the Farmville players.

WHITEWASH WELDON HI

McNeil Blanks Weldon 7 To 0—Yellow Jackets Hit Three Home Runs

James McNeil, one of Coach Hoyle's right handed hurlers, proved to be the star of the Jax second game with Weldon as he pitched a shutout game and hit two Ruthians. Hockey Hardison hit a homer, all three of the circuit clouts going over the left field fence. Wick Draper, pitching for Weldon, pitched a good game and held the locals down pretty well until in the closing frames when his support weakened and the Jax accounted for most of their runs in the closing frames. This game closed this district schedule in the State title race and Roanoke Rapids went thru an 8 game schedule with Weldon, Rich Square, Scotland Neck, and Seaboard without losing.

This week the locals go to Elizabeth City and will play there to find out which of the two teams will be able to continue in the State titular race, as Elizabeth City has won out in her district. Lefty Starkes will probably hurl for the Jackets in this game.

WINNERS IN 3 EVENTS

Glee Club First Place In Three Events—Speight Wins Tenor Solo

The Roanoke Rapids Music Club under the direction of Miss Virginia Smith won out in three events at Rocky Mount last Saturday. The school assembling at Rocky Mount for the district contest were: Nashville, Gatesville, Spring Hope, Warrenton and Roanoke Rapids.

Roanoke Rapids entered into nine different phases of the musical meet and were victorious in three, winning first place in the mixed chorus, boys glee club and Norman Speight won first place in the tenor solo. The local club was able to get second place in the boys' quartet, the mixed quartet, girls' trio, and Coby Williams won second place in the baritone solo. The judge was Mr. H. H. Fuchs, instrumental and Theory instructor at N. C. C. W. in Greensboro; Miss Hazel Worsley of Rocky Mount judged the piano solo; Mr. Haman Nicholson was the district chairman.

One week from today the Roanoke Rapids orchestra under the direction of R. L. Martin, and the winners of the events at Rocky Mount will go to Greenville, where they will compete with the schools from all over the State and decide the state titles in the different phases of music.

K. R. Wright is ill with pneumonia at Roanoke Rapids Hospital.

Bounds Is No. 5
John Bounds is the fifth senior to enjoy the privilege of a month's attendance at the local Kiwanis Club that meets every week. When John's term is out there will be just one more senior to get a chance to visit the Kiwanians. The following boys are the ones who have attended this year: Carl Thompson, James Womble, Jimmie Shell, Belmont Murray and John Bounds. All of the boys enjoyed attending the Kiwanis Club. They are headed to be future Kiwanians.

Miss Mildred Fisher spent the week end in Rocky Mount.
