

READERS COLUMN

Editor Roanoke Rapids Herald, Roanoke Rapids, N. C., Dear Editor:

Please publish the following: This is to inform my many friends from whom I have received letters stating that they would support me for the office of Sheriff of Halifax County, that, realizing the time it takes to get around and see the good people of our county and since I will not have time because my work keeps me away from home, I will not be a candidate. I appreciate the support of these good people more than words can express.

I earnestly urge the good people of Halifax County to vote the straight Democratic ticket from Township Constable to President.
J. T. Thomason.

Essex, Missouri, April 23, 1932. Gentlemen:

We are in receipt of a late copy of your edition of The Herald (Keep Building Roanoke Rapids), we wish to congratulate you on this splendid issue, it is conclusive proof that your paper is in keeping with the progressive spirit of your city as evidenced by this edition.

Our father (Lewis F. Hux) and mother (Sarah E. Dickens) are natives of the State of North Carolina having moved from the State of North Carolina to the State of Missouri in the year 1855, your fellow townsman and ex-Mayor Knov Dickens is mother's brother, it was thru the courtesy of Mr. Dickens that we received the paper.

Your splendid public buildings are evidence of the progressive and civic pride of your city and no doubt came into existence by the untiring work and efforts of your progressive citizens, the set up of your paper is excellent, each ad and news item carries a word of cheer to every reader.

Will you kindly convey to our uncle Knox Dickens our sincere thanks for the paper and may we in closing wish your city and your paper continued success. Very respectfully,
Hux Brothers,
Rube J. Hux, Essex, Missouri.

IN MEMORIAM

Dedicated to a willing worker, Rev. B. J. Beale, who departed this life April 8, 1932, by A. M. Riddick.

When we think of our last week's service And of those who with us met We can meditate over lots was said And will never, no, never forget.

A dear willing worker who on Tuesday last Our fellowship did share Who often visited in our homes And so often offered prayer.

A few words of consolation For our wounded hearts conceal Many, many memories Of our beloved brother Beale.

There were many hours of toiling And with very little rest He would go and work for others And always do his best.

To carry forth the gospel Working daily at his trade Bearing many, many burdens Trusted God—was not afraid.

And let us all as willing workers Unite in one strong and loving band Consecrate to God our service That we may meet him in a better land.

Lloyd Allen of Graham was a visitor here over the week-end.

Miss Ruby Shell visited friends in Warenton Sunday.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Mesdames M. H. Hedgepeth and P. W. Ray were hostess at a surprise birthday party last Thursday evening, April 21st at the home of Mrs. Hedgepeth, in honor of their mother, Mrs. W. H. Jones. It was to be only a family gathering so Mrs. Jones thought. Old friends began to arrive and she began to feel that she was the center of interest to her family and friends and not until the dining room door was opened and she saw a lovely birthday cake containing 16 plus candles and lots of gifts surrounding the cake and her little grand daughters singing "Happy Birthday To You," did she realize that it was her very own party. There were lots of old time games and other amusements and then a sweet course was served to Mesdames W. S. Saunders, Norris Hannon, S. M. Thompson, R. I. Starke, F. M. Coburn, J. M. Rice, J. H. Hines, J. H. King, J. E. Grant, P. W. Ray, M. H. Hedgepeth, W. H. Jones, Misses Mary Walker, Mary Louise Ray, Mildred Grant, Doris and Helen Hedgepeth. This occasion will linger long in Mrs. Jones' memory.

Mrs. C. C. Jernigan and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Page gave Miss Berta Miller a surprise birthday party Saturday night, April 23, at Mrs. C. C. Jernigan's. Games and dancing were enjoyed.
