

FINAL OFFICIAL STATE VOTE

Reynold's Record Majority Passes 107 Thousand

(Special To The Herald)
 Raleigh, July 14.—John Christopher Blucher Ehringhaus was declared the Democratic nominee for Governor, Robert Rice Reynolds for United States Senator, and Arthur L. Fletcher for Commissioner of Labor by the State Board of Election, in session here Monday.

The official vote for the second primary, July 2, for Senate follows: Short term: Reynolds 227,864; Morrison 120,428; Reynolds majority 107,436; total vote, 348,296.

Long term: Reynolds, 221,869; Morrison, 116,012; Reynolds majority, 105,857; total vote 337,881. Governor: Ehringhaus 182,055; Fountain, 168,917; Ehringhaus majority 13,138; total vote 350,972.

Commissioner of Labor: Fletcher 184,203; Mitchell, 114,072; Fletcher majority 70,131; total vote 298,275.

These figures tell the story of two of the hardest state-wide intra-party simultaneous fights in the history of North Carolina. They show that Reynolds won over Cameron Morrison by the largest vote ever cast in a Democratic primary, which vote surprised even the most hopeful Reynolds followers. Reynolds, himself, in his most sanguine moments, would not have claimed half the 107,463 majority he received. They also show that Richard T. Fountain came up from under a 47000 lead in the first primary to within 13000 of Ehringhaus, also a surprise. A majority for Major Fletcher over Clarence E. Mitchell was expected, the extent uncertain.

The total vote for Governor fell about 41,000 behind the nearly 390,000 cast in the first primary, but held up better than was expected.

But the hatchet has been buried and the winners and losers have established friendly relations. Senator Cameron Morrison early saw his defeat and wired congratulations to Reynolds, assuring him of his support and work this fall. Fountain delayed because of the closer vote, has congratulated Ehringhaus and given assurance of hearty support of the entire ticket. Mitchell extended congratulations to Fletcher when he found the results. All of the three successful candidates have replied in suitable terms. With the party candidates selected, all promise to unite against "the common enemy."
