

Speight Killed Last Night

Harvey Speight, 27, former Roanoke Rapids boy and son of C. H. Speight of this city, was killed near Raleigh last night when a motorcycle he was driving smashed into a parked truck.

William B. Thurston, 19, of Bolton and a State College student, who was riding behind Speight, was also killed.

The accident occurred on Route 90 one mile east of Raleigh at 8 o'clock last night.

C. H. Speight, father, and Ted Speight, brother left this morning with W. C. Williams for Raleigh to bring the body back here for burial. Funeral services will probably be held this Friday.

Thurston died a few minutes after reaching the Rex hospital in Raleigh, but Speight was thought to have chances for recovery. He was conscious until after reaching the hospital.

Internal injuries were responsible for his death. His arm was also broken.

According to the Wake County Coroner, Arthur Williams, colored driver for A. Gomez, Raleigh stone contractor, had driven a Gomez truck partly off the highway to fix a puncture. Two wheels of the truck were on the concrete and the truck lights were off. The truck was loaded with stone.

The motorcycle crashed into the rear of the truck. Speight evidently not seeing it as the tail light was not burning. Both boys were thrown violently to the pavement.

Williams was ordered held under $500 bond by the Coroner.

The two boys had been to Wilson trying to find employment. Thurston was a student in electrical engineering at State College.

Harvey Speight left Roanoke Rapids about five years ago and was employed for several years as tobacco buyer by the Liggett and Myers Tobacco Co. He is married and leaves his wife and one child.

Surviving here are his father and step-mother and four brothers and three sisters: H. B., William, Forman and Randolph; Margaret, Josephine and Mary.

According to news received at press time, the funeral will be held Friday afternoon in the chapel of W. C. Williams Funeral home.

Death came at 2:30 this morning, due to internal injuries, unsuspected at the time he was brought to the hospital.

Car Hits Child

Bobby Bright, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Bright, 40 Madison Street, was hit by a car driven by Clyde Ranhorn Saturday afternoon.

The car had driven into a driveway at the side of the Bright home and when Ranhorn started to back out the child was in the back of the car. His mother screamed and brakes were applied.

The rear bumper knocked the child down and it received a cut on one knee and several bruises.

Convict Killed

E. R. Cole, convict at Caledonia State Farm, was killed today as he and another attempted to escape from the prison farm.

Cole, a desperate criminal from Waterbury, Conn., was under a fifteen year sentence.

Oscar Hylpon, who attempted to escape with Cole, was badly wounded. He was brought to the Roanoke Rapids hospital tonight where his condition is said to be serious.

Has Plan to Displace

John H. Perry, nationally known publisher, offers an original plan to displace income, inheritance and nuance tax by having European debtors pay us with alcoholic beverages—which would net Uncle Sam four billion dollars.
