FIRE

The Roanoke Rapids Fire Dept. is on its toes.

Last night just before 8:30, the Dept. was in session at the semi-monthly instruction meeting at the Town Hall.

Looking out the window some of the boys saw a fire a block away. They blew the siren from the meeting room and dashed to the fire before anyone had time to turn in an alarm.

It was the garage of J. M. Rice, corner Third and Jackson. A car in one side was pushed out to safety. The belongings of a servant in the center of the building were destroyed. Part of the building was saved.

The fire appeared to start from the alley side from an unknown source. There are no wires or stove in the garage.

World Series Baseball Again

The schedule has been completed for baseball's annual world series, first two games to be played at Yankee stadium, New York, September 28 and 29. Anticipating the triumph of the Chicago Cubs in the National League pennant race, the next two games are scheduled at Chicago on October 1 and 2. . . Photos, show (left) Charley Grimm playing first-baseman manager of the Chicago Cubs and (right) Joe McCarthy, manager of the New York Yankees—former manager of the Cubs and the only manager ever to have won a league pennant in both major leagues.

Two tragedies occurred on the same day within a half mile of each other on Route 125 between Halifax and Scotland Neck. One man killed himself Saturday morning. Another man was killed by an automobile Saturday night.

Robert Hudson, 54 years old committed suicide at his home about two miles West of Scotland Neck.

Frank Clark, 25, colored died from injuries sustained when he tried to jump on a moving car containing four white boys.

Both cases were investigated by the Sheriff at . . .

RALEIGH BOOSTERS

On Thursday September 29, a group of Raleigh business men will arrive here, bringing a message of good will and an invitation to all the people to attend the State Fair, to be held in the Capital City October 10-15. This community was chosen as one of the stop-overs because of the important position it holds in Eastern North Carolina.

There will be several buses loaded with visitors, who will be accompanied by a brass band, which will give a short concert between addresses. Souvenirs will be distributed. The motorcade will be heralded by men on motorcycles and the entire community is invited to turn out to greet the visitors. The State fair this year will be featured by greatly reduced admission prices and record breaking crowds are expected.

LOSES EYE

George McNabb, employe of Roanoke Hardware Co., lost the sight of his left eye this morning while opening a case of hardware.

Mac was using a hammer and hatchet in prizing open the box. A piece of the face of the hatchet broke off and flew in his eye, piercing the ball.

Dr. Royster removed the metal with a magnet but the sight of the eye was destroyed. Mac will be confined for several days to remove chances for infection or complication.
