

200 Attend County Club Meeting

More than 200 attended the all day session of the Home Demonstration Clubs of Halifax County held at the Roanoke Rapids High School auditorium last Thursday.

For the past two years, among other things, the clubs have been studying clothing and the program here was called Achievement day to show what had been learned over the two year period. The work was under the direction of Mrs. Hazel Wheeler, Home Demonstration Agent, and Mesdames N. L. Stedman and Applewhite.

Mrs. Stedman presided. Invocation was by Rev. S. J. Starnes of the First Methodist Church. The address of welcome was by Mrs. Wheeler and the response by Miss Anna Belle Bennett.

Practically all the clubs took part in the clothing pageant. The Hardawee and Heathsville clubs showed the history of womens clothing from 1825 to 1932. Calvary and New Hope clubs showed how to pick winning colors. Ringwood and Hollister clubs featured shoes for beauty and health. Tillery club showed childrens clothing. Darlington's act was called line and design. It was in the form of a trial, the defendants being charged with incorrect dress. Halifax club showed how to dress for any occasion. Dawson and Spring Hope had an act called "Pepping Up The Wardrobe." Then came a contest of all the garments used on the program. H. S. Loy and Mrs. George Hayes acted as judges.

Lunch was served by the New Hope Club in the Domestic Science rooms. At the afternoon session various committees were appointed by Mrs. Stedman. Music and choruses for the day were furnished by the Hobgood and Roseneath clubs. Mrs. Charles Miller sang, accompanied by Miss Glads Cox. Senator Long spoke on several political issues of interest to women. Miss Moss, treasurer, read her report and there were other committee reports before adjournment of a highly successful meeting.

Mrs. J. R. Alford

The death angel visited the home of J. R. Alford near Norlina on Sunday, November 20 at 2:30 a. m. and took away the wife and mother, Mrs. Sallie L. Alford. She was 65 years of age. Mrs. Alford was a member of the Ringwood Methodist Church in early childhood, but later joined the Mt. Auburn Christian Church with her husband. She was the mother of ten children, five boys and five girls. One daughter preceded her to the grave.

Mrs. Alford was buried at Mt. Auburn Christian Church at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon, November 21. This being the same day and hour of her marriage thirty eight years ago.

Two sons and a daughter reside in Roanoke Rapids: Charlie and Willis Alford and Miss Fannie Alford.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Camp, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pruden, attended the football game at Durham Saturday.
