

BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT NEXT WEEK

Six boys and girls high school basketball teams will fight it out in the Roanoke Rapids Kiwanis Club Northampton and Halifax County basketball tournament here February 3rd and 4th in the high school gym.

There will be a trophy awarded to the winner of the champion boys team and also champion girls team.

The schools entered are: Rich Square, Woodland, Severn, Aurelian Springs, Weldon and Conway.

The first games will be played Friday afternoon at 3:30 P. M. when a double bill will see Rich Square and Severn girls teams open the show, following this game Woodland and Aurelian Spring boys teams will clash to wind up the afternoon program. The same day at 7 30 P. M. will see a triple-header, Conway girls clashing with the Weldon skirts. The Conway boys meeting the Rich Square boys team, and Woodland girls playing the Aurelian Spings sextet.

Saturday afternoon at 3:00 P. M. Severn Boys vs. Winner Conway and Rich Square tilt and winner Rich Square nad Severn girls vs. winner Conway and Weldon skirts.

Saturday night at 7:30 P. M. winner Woodland, Aurelian Springs vs. winner Rich Square, Conway, Severn, and Weldon girls teams, and winner Aurelian Springs nad Woodland boys teams vs. winner Severn, Conway and Rich Square boys teams.

Admission students 15c; adults 25c.

JACKETS WIN TWO

Coach Cheek's Yellow Jacket Cagers got off to a good start last week winning two games and dropping one.

Among their victories included Hertford which was a district elimination game in the State race.

Playing on a poorly court and handicapped by their opponents advantage in height the Jackets were swamped 27-6. Tuesday night on the Conway High's Court, Conway won the State crown last season, and have another crack team this season.

The Jax boys and girls won a double bill Wednesday night at Henderson's High's expense the boys edged out by a 16-19 count. Newton and W. Dickens featured for the locals.

The skirts ran wild with a 37-18 score, Lelia Murray and Lois Stansbury bagged most points, while Mills and Tudor also performed well.

Friday night the Jackets took Hertford high in store nosing out by a 18-21 victory, this was the locals first win in the State race. Phillip Newton, I. Dickens and W. Dickens led the Jackets, Allbrook and Y. Brown also showed good form. The skirts dropped a hard fought game to the Aurelian Springs sextette 16-20 to wind up the week's cage bill.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of our dear Father and Husband, J. F. Munfee, who departed this life January 27, 1924.

Our hearts in deep sadness recalls the day when death took our dear one away. Just a life of sweet remembrance, just a memory of fond and true, just a token of love and devotion, that our hearts still hold for you.

Wife and children,
MAGGIE MUNFEE.

Connie Mack at 70

Cornelius McGillicuddy . . . better known as the beloved Connie Mack, boss baseball man of the Philadelphia Athletics and dean of the American game looks hopefully toward winning his 10th pennant in 1933, as he turned the 70 mark in birthdays.

LOCAL GIRL TEAM BOWS TO SPRINGS

The Aurelian Springs high School girls defeated Roanoke Rapids high girls, Friday night, January 18, in one of the hardest fought basketball games of the season.

Aurelian Springs girls led the scoring from start to finish. Ruth Hamlet, a forward for Aurelian Springs tallied 14 points for top honors. The final score for the girls: Aurelian Springs, 20; Roanoke Rapids, 16.

Aurelian Springs girls have played four games, won 2, tied 1, and lost 1.

Up to the present date the Aurelian Springs boys have played 13 games. Seven of these have been won. Other games scheduled are with Littleton, Macon, and Jackson.

On the boy's team those leading are Henry Liles, Allen Carter, Lewis Saunders, Wilson Warren Dudley Powel, Henry Fowler, J. W. Lewis, Raymond Williams, Stedman Hux, Edward Harrill, Leon Knight, Howerton Hardy, Randolph Crowby, Jack Crawley, Randolph Tharrington, and Ferguson Smith.

Mr. Clary is working daily with the reserves and has some prominent material in the making.

MRS. EDMONDSON HOSTESS

On Tuesday evening of this week Mrs. Bernard Edmondson was hostess to her bridge club at the home of Mrs. V. T. Lamm on Roanoke Avenue.

Mrs. Gene Wilson was given a potted plant for high score and Miss Edna Wofford a box of soap as low score prize. A salad course was served at ten-thirty. Those making up the tables were: Mesdames Gene Wilson, Al George, Paul Weeks, Zollie Powell, Bill Alligood, Clyde Liske, Dick Brown, Ivy Mohorn, Lester Edmondson, George Lampley, Miss Myrtle Lipscomb and Miss Edna Wofford.

On Friday night, January 20, Aurelian Springs girls basket ball team played Roanoke Rapids team. The game was played fair and square, with Aurelian Springs winning, the score being 20 to 16.

CAGERS TRAVEL

The Red Devils and the Yellow Jacket Cage Teams will take to the road this week.

The Jacket will get a two day trip staying over in Elizabeth City Friday night for a tussle with Elizabeth City high quint in the State elimination basket ball race.

Hertford will entertain the Jax Saturday night in the other district game. The locals took their first tilt from Hertford needing two more wins to clinch the district championship.

Taking a severe licking by the Quality Shop Sunday the Red Devils will play Hopewell Tubize in Hopewell Saturday night. The Hopewell quint won over the Devils in their first game but with new faces in the locals line-up they should give them plenty competition. Wednesday night will see the Devils playing at Fremont in a return game. Fremont gave the Devils a good game here last week, the locals nosing out by one point.

NOEGISH!

KNUTE SPRECKLES IS A MAN OF FEW WORDS ----- EVEN IF HE IS SINGLE.

MOTHER DIES

Word was received here Tuesday of the death of Mrs. Hurley King's mother in Concord, N. C. Mrs. King and children were called there about ten days ago on account of her illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Weeks were week-end visitors in Rocky Mount.

DEVILS WIN TWO

The Red Devils cage team added two victories to their list and one defeat in their last three tussles, Thursday night with two new members, Allen and Garner in the line-up the locals subdued the Rich Square All-Stars quint 34-16 on the local floor, Allen and Cheek took high score honors, with Taylor topping the visitors.

Saturday nights tilt also played here was a real thriller. The Devils nosed out Fremont All-Stars 27-26, this was a nip and tuck affair. F. Dickens and Cheek with 10 points each were high score tossers, Flowers with 8 points, Lane and B. Peacock with 6 were the visitors high scorers.

Journeying to Portsmouth Sunday the Devils lost to the Quality Shop Quint 65-18 in a loose affair. The Quality boys averaged 6 feet for their entire team, and with three regulars out of the line-up the Devils showed little opposition. F. Dickens bagged 10 points for high score honors. Weed tallied 20 points for the high light of the winners attack.

THE Camirror

NOW IT'S "MINADRAMA!" — One minute dramatic sketches devised by Eileen Douglas, actress, together with talented group of musicians and singers is new feature of Barnsdall Oil Co. weekly radio program. Right, Miss Douglas and above, the Rondoliers, a peppy group of male singers, popular feature of the program.

PRESIDENT OLAYA of Colombia, S. A., and daughter, Lucia, snapped at Recent Military Air Review. They hope that Peru's invasion of Colombian Territory will not precipitate war. But under President Olaya's leadership, the peace-loving Colombians are preparing to leave their coffee fields for the battlefields if necessary.

TWO BETTYS — Betty Webb in real life plays the part of Betty Lou Regent in that thrilling nightly radio mystery serial, "Chandu the Magician."

WALKER'S NEMESIS—Irving Ben Cooper, (above) one of the leading figures of the Seabury investigation of New York City's government, has resigned his post in the Senate Banking Investigation of the Stock Exchange.

ARTHUR JOHNSTON, famous musical composer of the popular "One More Chance" and other hits, now in Hollywood, is shown working on the featured songs for the new picture of Kate Smith, entitled "Hello Everybody," which will be released soon. Mr. Johnston's contract with one of the large motion picture producers has just been renewed.

NEW BABY SENATOR—Senator Robert M. LaFollette, of Wisconsin, who for years has been the youngest member of the United States Senate, relinquishes his distinction to Senator Richard B. Russell, (right) of Georgia, who is 36 years of age.

CAN HE TAKE IT?—Gordon White, (left) seems to be getting the worst of it in his bout with "Toddy" Carroll, during one of the weekly classes conducted for sons of Naval Officers at Annapolis, Maryland.