

PLAN FREE TEXT BOOKS

(Special to The Herald)

Raleigh, Feb. 2.—Free textbooks for the elementary school children, purchased but not printed by the State, and adopted over a period of four years, so as not to make the cost excessive, is recommended by the School Book Commission named by former Governor Gardner under a resolution of the 1931 Legislature, to make a study of the school book situation and report to the State Board of Education. State Supt. A. T. Allen is chairman; Supt. H. M. Roland, of the Burlington schools, is secretary; Supt. E. E. Sams, Lenoir County schools; Cale K. Burgess and Robert G. Lassiter, Raleigh, and Julian S. Miller, Charlotte, compose the committee which made its 70-odd page report Friday.

The commission recommends adoption of free books in grades 1, 2, and 3 the first year; grades 4 and 5 the second year; grade 6 the third and grade 7 the fourth year, by which it estimates the cost will be approximately $500,000 a year. Belief is expressed that this method will save money in the purchase of school books, lighten the family burden of textbook buying increase educational opportunity of the children, improve the quality of instruction by equipping the children with approved materials the first day school opens and safeguard the high quality of school books purchased.

DIZZINESS

relieved by Black-Draught

"I decided to take Theford's Black-Draught, as I had been having bilious spells," writes Mr. Chas. E. Stevens, of Columbus, Ind. "When I get bilious, I feel sleepy and tired and do not feel like doing my work. I get awfully dizzy. I know then that I had better take something. After I found how good Black-Draught is, that is what I have used. I guess it rids me of the bile, for I feel better—don't feel like I am dropping off to sleep every time I sit down. That, to me, is a very bad feeling. Now you can get Black-Draught in the form of a SYRUP, for Children."

MONDAY NIGHT BRIDGE CLUB

On Monday, January 30th Mrs. Ruth Transou was hostess to the Monday Night Bridge Club, a delightful game was enjoyed at three tables. Mrs. D. L. Traynham won high score for the evening. You Wouldn't Think of Buying-

"A PIG in a POKE"

No Intelligent Person Would Without Looking In the "Poke!" It Would Be "Bad Business!"

Of course we have pigs . . . and we have "pokes," tho it has been several years since we've heard one called that, but the old adage about "The Pig in the Poke" still clings. A more modern version would be "A Pig Wrapped in Cellophane." You could at least SEE THE PIG! And that is just what we are getting at. SEE the groceries you buy! KNOW the quality you are getting! Don't put on "rose colored glasses" when you are looking at price tags either. Trade at the "M" where price, quality and service is RIGHT!
