

Next Week At The Imperial

Lionel Atwill As A Wax Sculptor

Here we have Lion Atwill, as Ivan Igor, the famous modeler in wax, moulding a museum piece of uncanny realism in "The Mystery of the Wax Museum," which comes to the Imperial next Monday-Tuesday. The picture is all in technicolor.

Stop Getting Up Nights Physic the Bladder With Juniper Oil

Drive out the impurities and excess acids that cause irritation, burning and frequent desire. Juniper oil is pleasant to take in the form of BUKETS, the bladder physic, also containing buchu leaves, etc. Works on the bladder similar to castor oil on the bowels. Get a 25c box from any drug store. After four days if not relieved of "getting up nights" go back and get your money. If you are bothered with backache or leg pains caused from bladder disorders you are bound to feel better after this cleansing and you get your regular sleep.
The Roanoke Pharmacy and Rosemary Drug Co., say BU-KETS is a best seller.

Usual Run Of Cases In Recorder's Court For Past Two Weeks

Altho last week's Recorder's Court news was received too late for publication, there was little to distinguish it from the ordinary week. Last week's session netted nine cases, two each of careless and reckless driving, one of which was charged with carrying concealed weapon also, and one each of assault, liquor, assault with deadly weapon, seduction and affray.

This week saw another nine cases disposed of by Judge C. R. Daniel and they numbered three each on liquor and larceny charges, with one each of speeding, abandonment and assault.

Hank Daniel and George Gilliam, who were tried on liquor charges, pleaded not guilty and were found not guilty.

James Taylor, charged with larceny, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to four months in jail to be assigned to work the roads.

P. C. Evans and Emmitt Ryals were brought before the Judge on liquor charges. Ryals pleaded guilty, but Evans pleaded not guilty. Both were found guilty and sentenced to six months in jail to be assigned to work the roads. Capias to issue as to Ryals March 1st on payment of $65.00 and costs.

Ed. Perkins, charged with larceny, pleaded not guilty. He was found guilty, however, and sentenced to three months in jail to be assigned to work the roads.

F. J. Capell, charged with speed-judgment was continued on payment of costs.

Jake Perkins, Ora Perkins, Eliza Perkins and Ida Higgs, who were tried on liquor charges, all pleaded not guilty. Each was found guilty, however, and Jake Perkins was sentenced to six months in jail to be assigned to work the roads. Ora and Eliza Perkins and Ida Higgs were sentenced to six months in jail, but sentence was suspended on good behavior.

J. E. Pearce, charged with assault, pleaded guilty. Prayer for judgment was continued on payment of costs.
