

Next Week At The Imperial

At The Imperial - Next Week

Jack Oakie always has an eye for the ladies, much to the dismay of George E. Stone, his trainer, in their latest comedy "Sailor Be Good," which comes to the Imperial next Monday and Tuesday. Vivienne Osborne is Jack's "Temptress" in the above picture.

Commissioners Pass Resolution Against Law Changing Fees

In their regular meeting on Tuesday, March 6th, the Board of County Commissioners passed a resolution unanimously as follows: To the members of the Legislature from Halifax County, be it hereby requested not to change the law fixing fees to be charged by the Register of Deeds and Clerk of Court. If change is made, the commissioners pointed out, it will necessitate a tax increase to meet the reduced schedule of taxes.

Representatives Pope and Taylor introduced a bill in the House regulating fees to be charged by the Register of Deeds, Clerk of the Superior Court and Sheriff of Halifax County for various services on Feb. 15th.

Nothing else of unusual importance was taken up by the board. Minutes of the last meeting were read. Miss Clemmie Read, Clerk of Recorder's Court presented half fee report and report of prisoners sent to the roads.

Funeral Services For Former City Interne Are Held

Funeral services for Dr. T. J. Stevenson, Jr., who died March 4th, in a Philadelphia hospital of peritonitis, were conducted Sunday at his home in Seaboard. Dr. Stevenson was the only son of Mrs. T. J. Stevenson and the late T. J. Stevenson, Sr.

He is a former city interne, having come here after completing his medical course at a Richmond, Va., school. At the time of his death, he was finishing his medical education in Philadelphia. Dr. Stevenson was well known in the city, and leaves a host of friends here.

Pallbearers were schoolmates, and included the following young Doctors: W. K. Maddrey, B. B. Outland, R. H. Owens, Stanley Meade, J. W. Parker and M. C. Maddrey. Honorary pallbearers were 12 local physicians and 12 friends of the family.

Mrs. Ernest Bidgood, of Portsmouth, Va., Mrs. John Grant, of Emporia, Va., spent Sunday here with relatives.

IMPERIAL PROGRAM

Next week's screen offerings at the Imperial are wide and varying, starting the week with a hilarious comedy-drama starring Jack Oakie and supported by Vivienne Osborne and George E. Stone.

It is said that in this new production "Sailor Be Good," Jack Oakie has never been seen in a more laughable form than as Jonsey, smart-alec, wise-cracking sailor with a roving eye for women, and a penchant for fights. Miss Osborne proves her versatility as Red, waterfront girl-friend of sailors and Jonsey in particular. She is equally appealing here as in her previous dramatic and musical revue roles.

For the first time in several weeks, vaudeville will be offered at the Imperial, Arthur Hauk's (Sunshine Revue) All American Revue filling a first-half engagement at the Uptown house.

Wednesday only, Slim Summerville and Zazu Pitts appear in "They Just Had To Get Married."

Thursday and Friday, Ben Lyon and Mary Brian appear in "Girl Missing," while Tom Keene comes to the screen in "Cheyenne Kid" for the Saturday offering next week.

Running short of corn due to the drought last summer, a group of Johnston County farmers cooperated to buy 2,000 bushels recently.

"The folks who have the most gray matter don't always perch on top the ladder."
"Just brains alone are not so hot. It's how you use the ones you've got. I've seen some fellows walking poodles who had more real sense in their noodles than some big bozos short on brains who reached the top by constant strains. Small heads with wheels well lubricated will soon reach points quite elevated."

An example of using brains to advantage is joining the Roanoke Rapids Building and Loan Ass'n. Nobody ever lost a dollar with us, and no dollar ever failed to earn good interest upon maturity.
