

Next Week At The Peoples

NEXT WEEK — AT THE PEOPLES

Louise Closser Hale, Clark Gable and Helen Hayes, as they appear in "The White Sister," feature attraction at the Peoples next Monday and Tuesday.

PEOPLES PROGRAM

Two of the greatest personalities of the American screen are co-starred for the first time in the classic love story, "The White Sister," feature attraction of next week's Peoples program which opens Monday for a two-day run. They are Helen Hayes, winner of the recent Motion Picture Academy award, and Clark Gable, universally conceded to be the talkies' outstanding matinee idol.

Miss Hayes, last seen as the nurse in "A Farewell to Arms," this time plays the role of an aristocratic Italian girl who on the eve of her wedding to a man of her father's choice, falls in love with a young officer in the Italian air force. A clandestine romance results and the father, in a desperate attempt to call a halt to the proceedings, is involved in an automobile smashup and dies. When the young officer subsequently is called to the front and is reported killed, the girl determines to abandon the world and to shut herself up in a convent as a White Sister.

Death by freezing is the latest murder method to come to the screen in "Terror Abroad" which is shown Wednesday only next week, featuring John Halliday, Charlie Ruggles, Neil Hamilton and Shirley Grey. The doctor declares that a beautiful woman has been frozen to death—although the boat is in the tropics, in the middle of July, with the temperature at 90 degrees above.

Russian stoves that smoke, hotels that boast but a single bathroom, imposing vistas of Moscow and the dungeons of the Russian secret police, French plumbing and intricacies of the Ballet Russe figured in the research which went into the filming of "Clear All Wires," talkie version of the Broadway comedy hit, which brings Lee Tracey, Benita Hume, Una Merkel, James Bleason and others to the Peoples screen Thursday and Friday. "Flaming Passion" is an added feature for Thursday-Fridays' program with special shows for men and women.

Based on actual occurrence in the history of the Southwest when a crooked foreman absconded with his employer's entire herd, "Robbers' Roost" will provide realism along with thrills for the Saturday show next week. George O'Brien and Maureen O'Sullivan are co-featured in the film, which is a high-class" western, action drama.

Miss Annie Belle Daughtrey, who is teaching school in Burlington, N. C., spent the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Daughtrey.

Mrs. Lloyd Allen, of Graham, is visiting her grand-mother, Mrs. Charlie Shell.
