HONORING MISS WYCHE

Miss Traynham Wyche, popular bride-elect of June, was complimented at a miscellaneous shower Wednesday afternoon, given by Mrs. Wm. A. China at her country home. Throughout the spacious home pink and white roses were artistically arranged. Progressive contract was enjoyed at four tables.

At the close of the game Mrs. Robert E. Cleaton was found to hold high score and was given perfume. The honoree was presented a piece of silver in her chosen pattern.

At the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Mrs. H. E. Lee, little Gladys Lee and Master Robert Towe, dressed as bride and groom, entered the living room drawing a wagon draped in white and laden with packages wrapped in pink and white, which they presented to Miss Wyche. A hand painted brides book was given by the hostess, requesting each guest to write advice to bride-elect in original verse, on how to hold a husband. The hostess was assisted by Mesdames R. L. Towe and H. E. Lee in serving an ice course of cream in white wedding bell mould, pink cakes in diamond shape, and pink and white mints. On each plate were placed miniature brides and on the bride-elect's plate was a bride and groom.

Those making up the tables for bridge were: Misses Traynham Wyche, Susan Holliday, Hart Sheridan, Martha Craddock, Mabel Reggan, Lee Arnold, Ada Edwards, Flonnie Hart, Margie Cannon, Susan Womble, Mesdames M. L. Allen, Crawford Hoyle, H. S. Loy, R. E. Cleaton, W. C. Williams and W. A. Thorne. Guest for refreshments: Mesdames Heath Lee, R. L. Towe, T. R. Manning, and C. A. Wyche.

George Kline of Wolfsville, Mo., is spending 20 days in jail because his automobile license plates were covered with mud; the tags were seven years old, the front number did not jibe with the rear.

SPRING AGAIN!

Get your Pontiac now and enjoy the thrill of a fine new car

Up out of the bog of stagnant business, pops Pontiac. Sales increasing every month. Ahead of last year.

The sheer newness of the car, the balanced value that anyone can see and feel, the good old spring sunshine that warms hearts and thaws out cold feet—make a combination that a lot of folks can't resist—forever.

Stop any Pontiac owner anywhere and ask him what he thinks of his Pontiac Economy Straight Eight. Ask any automobile man what the men in the business think of Pontiac.

Everywhere, there is the greatest enthusiasm ever accorded a Pontiac. Never in our history have so many owners written and phoned us to say how pleased they are with their new Pontiacs.

Every day Pontiacs are attracting new buyers—by their looks, their performance, their comfort, their safety, their economy, their durability and their low price.

Don't resist temptation too long—get one now. You'll be in good company—and big company.

All closed cars have Fisher bodies, with Fisher No Draft Ventilation for cool summer driving.
