

TABS MEET TRUEWORTHS SATURDAY

Crowds Expected For Initial Game Between Two Teams

Browning Brothers Probable Batteries For Truworths

The initial game for the Truworths and Tabs will take place Saturday at 2 P. M., the only game billed for this week in City League play.

Having trounced the Kilo-Swats last week the Truworths seem to have more power with the stick, picking up more defensive power in some of their reserve strength, this should prove a more interesting game than expected.

The Tabs tagged at Finch of the Bascoes in an effort to get an official league win Saturday but with no avail. After a week's drilling with their new surroundings the recently organized Tabs will be hard to stop and should give the fans a real treat when they hook-up with the tough Truworth outfit.

A real hurling duel is anticipated when the rival ace righthanders meet Saturday. T. B. Browning of the Truworths, and Ollie Acree of the Tabs, both these lads have plenty stuff when in the mood and the Tabs or Truworths want to take third rating in the league standing by a loss in this game, so watch for a real treat on Simons field.

The opening game between the Kilo-Swats and Tabs was ruled as an exhibition tilt by league officials due to the Tabs players performing on the high school team in their game with Mt. Airy Friday week, changing the league standing as below:

	W	L	Pt
Bascoes	3	0	1000
Truworths	1	1	500
Kilo-Swats	0	2	0000
Tabs	0	1	0000

Probable line-ups:
 Tabs—Acree p, Outland c, T. Taylor, 1b, Speight 2b, Garris 3b, I. Dickens ss, W. Dickens lf, J. Taylor cf, Sullivan rf.

Truworths: T. B. Browning p, R. Browning c, Brown 1b, N. Taylor 2b, L. Taylor ss, Crowder lf, Searcy cf, Lowder rf.

Will Rogers Picks A Story For This Spot

By WILL ROGERS

IF YOU'RE anything like me you will be about plumb sick of Scotch stories. Everywhere I go people seem to think that the only kind of a humorous story there is is one which deals with the people that wear kilties. However, sometimes there is one that seeps through with a grain of real humor in it and that's the only reason I'm passing it on to you.

Two Scotchmen went fishing with the understanding that the one who caught the first fish would have to pay for the rent of the boat. Sandy had hardly put his pole in the water when he got a bite that almost broke his line, but he refused to pull up and the fish got away. The other Scotchman was fishing without bait.

Schmeling and Dempsey

Jack Dempsey, promoter of the heavyweight battle between Max Schmeling, Germany, and Max Baer, California, at New York, June 8, has been a frequent visitor to Schmeling's training camp as pictured here with the German battler.

I ONLY HEARD!

—By—
The SPORTS EDITOR

Some facts about the Jackets big ball game at Chapel Hill—Pitcher Cockedness dropped the game, and the heavy hitting of all the players was marred by Cockedness errors.

Pridden, playing his last game, looked as if he never played his first game—you could compare him by his motions to an organ grinder on a rainy day, with that mitt behind home plate.

Acree probably was thinking about himself hurling from the same mound that Big Smoky Joe Griffith, Carolina U., turned in so many victories this season.

Garris, at first, reminded us of little Red Riding Hood with a bucket trying to persuade the wolf to "stay away from my door", in fact he was very wolfee with his timely smacks (Fouls.)

Allsbrook couldn't hear the Yee Hoo from Mabel way out on second and almost got mad by actually getting a hit, bringing shouts and her cheers from the bleachers.

Irvin Dickens on short, was thinking about another year on the Jacket club and he would probably be lead off man for the club, he did lead off the ones that struck out.

And, behold, Capt. William Grant at third. My My! You should have seen how that boy picked those hot grounders up—after the batter had passed second base.

Wilton Dickens way out in in leftfield was sure admiring the Carolina track men's uniforms—to himself—. I wonder if they furnish you those outfits if you would come to school here.

Lefty Starke, grazing in centerfield—I can't see who is in the grand stand from here—she said she would be here, I'll smack one next time up and that'll fix things.

And Henry Hardison planting per-season violets in rightfield—gazing at trackers hurling their javlin spears—those things look exactly like arzan's arrows.

Coach Hoyle—boys with each and every hit I would be able to award the lucky man a free trip to the World's Fair, barring Octagon soap wrappers and Micky Mouse Tops.

Above all Jackets don't forget I Only Heard—it wasn't told to me.

The Jax broke records in the past three years—but the skirts have the record for breaking dates and D. C. says it isn't so—but we know who is head man there.

There's the scrub Jacket quarterback who would leave home to seek higher laurels—He thought the road led to Burlington.

The Kilo-Swats can make more rules than the big-leagers—if they would stop drawing up plans and turn on some of that Vepco heat they might get off the bottom League raing.

After four years of local coaching Bill Alligood is finally admitting that he teaches his proteges to play ball.

Jas. Simms would leave the star Jax football outfit next year to stay in Littleton where the girls appreciate him.
