HONORING MISS WYCHE

Miss Mary Traynham Wyche, whose marriage occurs in June, was honored on Saturday afternoon with a party, given by Mrs. J. M. Grizzard and Mrs. Cooper Grizzard at the home of Mrs. J. M. Grizzard. The living room and dining room, used for six tables of bridge, were made lovely for this occasion by the use of yellow and white daisies, with the same color scheme carried out in refreshments, a salad course being served. When the scores were collected after six progressions the high score prize, a bottle of perfume, was won by Mrs. J. W. Ross, of Gordonsville, Va. Mrs. W. C. Williams was given a handkerchief for consolation prize. The guest of honor was presented a lamp, and Mrs. John Walker, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Page Taylor, of Ashland, Va., house guest of Mrs. J. M. Grizzard, were both given attractive gifts. Miss Wyche was also given a corsage of rose buds and sweet peas. Each guest was presented miniature corsages.

Those invited for bridge were: Misses Traynham Wyche, Margie Cannon, Susan Holliday, Virginia Forbes, Susan Womble, Hart Sheridan, Martha Craddock, Mesdames Cranford Hoyle, Francis Patterson, Jeff Lassiter, Carroll Wilson, Julian Allsbrook, Frank Hawley, Heath Lee, Pendleton Grizzard, W. C. Williams, Tom White, David Traynham, R. P. Beckwith, Alfred Martin, George Hayes, Page Taylor and J. W. Ross.

The following guests were invited for refreshments: Mesdames C. A. Wyche, T. R. Manning, John Walker, Charlena Hart, Fred Brown, and Miss Flonnie Holt.

MRS. LISKE ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Clyde Liske was hostess on Tuesday evening to members of her bridge club and several extra guests. There were four tables for players and a very interesting game was played. When the scores were collected at the close of the game Mrs. Ivey Mohorn was found to hold high score and was given a set of glasses. Mrs. Bill Alligood was given a piece of pottery as consolation. The guest prize went to Miss Ann Lewis Hale, of Halifax. A sweet course was served at ten-thirty. Those making up the tables were: Misses Myrtle Lipscomb, Edna Wafford, Mesdames Zollie Powell, Alvis George, Lester Edmonds, George Lampley, Paul Weeks, Ivey Mohorn, Bill Alligood, Bernard Edmonds, Eugene Wilson, Bunard Allsbrook, Bernice Wiggins, W. R. Caudle, Miss Ann Lewis Hale and Naomi Dickens of Halifax.

Fenton Johnson, Jesse Beard, Otto Wood, Curtis Higgins and Louie Ashton, spent the week-end in Washington, D. C.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this means of thanking our many friends for the sympathy extended during the bereavement of our son, Russel Lee. We particularly thank the young men who were so faithful in their efforts to recover his body from Roanoke River.

Miss Blannie Rorsey spent the week-end in Hendreson.

WOMEN: watch your BOWELS

What should women do to keep their bowels moving freely? A doctor should know the answer. That is why pure Syrup Pepsin is so good for women. It just suits their delicate organism. It is the prescription of an old family doctor who has treated thousands of women patients, and who made a special study of bowel troubles.

It is fine for children, too. They love its taste. Let them have it every time their tongues are coated or their skin is sallow. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is made from fresh laxative herbs, pure pepsin and other harmless ingredients.

When you've a sick headache, can't eat, are bilious or sluggish; and at the times when you are most apt to be constipated, take a little of this famous prescription (all drug stores keep it ready in big bottles), and you'll know why Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the favorite laxative of over a million women!
