

RECORDER TRIES 9 CASES

Case Of City Negro Who Assaulted In-Law Continued

Three Are Tried On Liquor Charges At Halifax Court

At the regular session of Recorder's Court, Judge C. R. Daniel and Solicitor Thadus H. Dickens disposed of nine cases. Liquor cases led with three cases and there was one case each of receiving stolen property, assault, driving without license, affray, petit larceny and failure to list.

Thurman Hardy, tried for receiving stolen property, plead guilty. Prayer for judgment continued for 1 year.

The case of James Freeman, who assaulted his father-in-law in a drunken quarrel, was continued.

The case of Thomas Naylor, who was driving without license, was remanded to Mayor for final disposition.

William Crawley plead guilty of liquor charges. Judgment suspended on payment of costs.

C. T. Hazelwood plead guilty of driving while drunk. He was fined $50 and costs, to be paid at rate of $5.00 per week.

E. R. Davis plead guilty of driving while drunk. He was fined $50 and costs to be paid by 1st Tuesday in July, 1933. Not to drive motor vehicle for 4 months.

Cisrow Sessoms and Bernard Clark were tried for affray. Sessoms plead not guilty and Clark plead guilty. Prayer for judgment continued on payment of costs.

Lonnie Norris plead guilty of petit larceny. He was sentenced to 10 months in jail to be assigned to work roads.

R. E. Davis was tried for failure to list taxes. Prayer for judgment continued on payment of costs.

New York's stock exchange was organized in 1792.

Ten Local People Employed By New Ford Dealers Here

The Roanoke Motor Company, new Ford dealers for Roanoke Rapids and vicinity, will employ ten people to start with, besides the manager, according to announcement coming from Vernon F. Harrison, the manager, and the new concern is now ready for business in their home on Roanoke Avenue and Ninth Streets, the building formerly occupied by Joyner Motor Co.

With a complete stock of parts, several models of the new Ford car on display on the floor and the shop running smoothly, the company has been ready for business since the first of the month but will not hold their formal opening for a week or so yet.

According to Mr. Harrison, elaborate plans are being worked out for the formal opening, which it is thought will be announced in next week's issue of the Herald, and in the intervening time, all details of service and interior arrangement of the garage will be worked out.

Mr. Harrison is well known in Roanoke Rapids, having lived in Halifax county for a number of years, and comes here from Littleton, where he also has the Ford agency. His Roanoke Rapids agency will be operated in addition to his Littleton holdings, it was announced, and Harrison will manage both places, but will give much of his time to looking after the Roanoke Rapids agency, particularly until it is well established.

The staff of employees for the new motor concern include the following: Miss Ruth Allen, D. L. Suiter, B. Frank Hudson, W. T. Alford, Fenton E. Jones, Wallace Bowers, Jake Rentz, James L.
