Each club collected fourteen hits with Tom Taylor staying the route on the mound for the Tabs, winning his second league game. Johnson did the firing work for the Bascoes.

The Tabs scored three runs in the first inning. I. Dickens opened with a single, Speight got on with a fielder's choice, W. Dickens was credited with a high pitch and W. Outland singled, scoring two runners. Sullivan brought in another with his bingle.

Things looked good for the Bascoes, also they chased home four runs when they got to bat. I. Dickens named Birdsong's grounder, Finch singled, Dick Lee sent out a fielder's choice and F. Sullivan tripled, scoring three runs. Ernest Lee sent in the other run with his blow.

A big inning for the Tabs in the eighth gave them a safe lead when they scored four times. Allsbrook errored Speight's try, leaving him safe at first. W. Dickens doubled and Birdsong missed W. Outland's grounder, sending home Speight. Sullivan sliced out a nice single, scoring two and J. Taylor, likewise, scored another.

The last Bascoes run came in the ninth with Ryals homer, who circled the bases in one of the hardest balls yet in Simmons park.

Local Netmen Will Battle For Honors

The City Tennis Championship started the first of this week and twenty-six players were on the list of preliminary matches. This tournament is under the direction of Belmont Murray who has worked out a schedule for the entries to follow up until the final stages. Being the first local tennis tournament ever staged here it will probably turn out a success.

The games are being played at all times during the week and it's up to the entries to get together as they have pairings posted on the courts. There will be prizes contributed by local merchants for the semi-finalists and winner of the tournament.

The first round of play is as follows: Paul Matthews vs Gene Cannon; Hugh Bradley vs John Ogletree; Wilson Mullen vs W. A. Wolhar; Belmont Murray vs Harry Cannon; Graham Dean vs Glenn Thompson; Edwin Akers vs Jack Smith; Rufus Vick vs Calvin Brown; Johnnie Bounds vs Jimmie Shell; John Dunn vs Heath Lee; Jack Cassada vs Gene Wells; Billy Baker vs Lela Murray; Virginia Akers vs Mary Wolhar; Ned Manning vs Jimmie Beckwith; and Roland Johnson vs Henry Hardison.

This group of contestants does not include everyone that is to take part in the meet and anyone desiring to enter the tournament is asked to communicate with Young Murray.

This tennis competition will present some fast netters. Every entry is requested to play at least one a week, otherwise he has to forfeit and his opponent is at liberty to continue in the eliminations.

The first match is to be played off in one set and so on until the finals, which will be played off in three out of five sets.

The matches are being played on the Ledgewood Hall court, Patterson and Rosemary Mill courts.

Miss Edythe Welch is spending this week in Raleigh.
