

NEW HOMES RISE UP IN ROANOKE RAPIDS PROGRAM

NRA and the Federal Home Loan Bank are doing quite well in Roanoke Rapids. The following houses are now under construction in this community:

C. W. Davis, two houses in the 600 block on Hamilton Street.

W. A. China, a brick residence in the 600 block of Roanoke Ave. Mose Brickell, a brick residence on the corner of 13th and Hamilton.

P. A. Reid, a brick home in the 700 block of Jackson Street.

E. W. Smith, a house in the 1300 block of Washington Street.

Fred Bright, a house in Belmont. G. H. Ranhorn, a house in Belmont.

Mrs. Haywood Cherry, a house in South Rosemary.

Allie Wood, a residence in the 1200 block of Hamilton Street.

The Pendleton Grizzard residence in the 400 block on Roanoke Avenue was just recently completed but comes under the building program which was made possible by the formation of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Winston-Salem.

By a method of rediscount, the Federal Home Loan Bank lends money to local Building & Loan Associations. The Roanoke Rapids Building & Loan Association borrowed about $20,000 in this way and was able to speed up the loan list as shown by the work now under way in the city.

Nine of the ten houses now under construction were financed in this manner. In addition five others have been refinanced locally and eighteen others have been lent money for refinancing elsewhere or for making improvements and modernizing their property.

Additions to homes are being made in several cases while others are installing plumbing and heat.

Building will continue good in Roanoke Rapids as the Building and Loan Association intends to make eight more loans for new construction in the near future.

In addition to new homes, the new filling station opposite Leggett's is completed and now open for business. C. T. Kidd is building a small brick stand between Tri-City Motor and W. C. Williams. W. F. Joyner has opened a new automobile agency for Chryslers and Plymouths, and a new drug store is coming to town.

And so Roanoke Rapids continues to grow and improve, slowly but steadily.

Bardin-Fitts

The announcement of the marriage of Miss Ann Elizabeth Fitts to Dr. Robert Malcolm Bardin, on August 12th, 1933, at Fayetteville, N. C., was made at a recent bridge party given by the bride's aunt, Mrs. V. T. Lamm. The announcement came in the form of a telegram sent to one of the guests.

After several progressions of bridge scores were taken, and high score prize awarded to Mrs. Dick Brown who presented the prize, a lovely picture, to the honoree. The guests were then asked to write in the brides book.

Little Emily Dunning, dressed as a bride came down the stairs to the strains of the wedding march, played by Gaybelle Greene and requested the bride to follow the ribbon which led to a bank of flowers. Under the flowers a shower of lovely lingerie was concealed. Mrs. Bardin opened each gift and graciously thanked the guests.

Little Louise Fitts and Emily Dunning assisted the hostess in serving a sweet course.

Mrs. Bardin is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry

Fitts and is a graduate of the Roanoke Rapids High School. She has lived here a number of years and has many friends throughout the state.

Dr. Bardin is the son of Mrs. J. D. Bardin and the late Judge Bardin, of Wilson. He is a graduate of the University of N. C., and Tulane University, and a member of the Theta Kappa Psi Fraternity. He served his internship at St. John's Hospital, Brooklyn, N. Y., and is now a resident at Kingston Ave. Hospital in Brooklyn. They will make their home in New York.

HONORING GUEST

Mrs. Roy Davis honored her house guest, Mrs. High, of Rocky Mount, with two tables of bridge.

When the scores were collected, Mrs. Paul Weeks held high, and was awarded a plaque. Low prize was won by Mrs. George Lampley. The guest of honor was presented with a gift. A sweet course was served. Those invited to meet Mrs. High were Mesdames Paul Weeks, George Lampley, Sam Bunn, Clifton Harper, Bruce Tucker and Miss Ruby Parrish of Nashville, N. C.

GIRLS FIND CAMELS Milder

I'M AMUSED AT THE WAY SO MANY GIRLS HAVE SUDDENLY DISCOVERED HOW MILD CAMELS ARE, BUT I'M GLAD THEY LEARNED WHAT I HAVE KNOWN FOR SO LONG—THAT CAMELS ARE BETTER FOR STEADY SMOKING!
