

Win Conference Game Today

HERTFORD LOSES TO JAX 33-0

Roanoke Rapids High Yellow Jackets won their opening conference game here today by trouncing the Hertford High eleven 33-0 on Simmons Field.

Butler Brown scored the locals first touchdown in the first quarter after a steady drive up to Hertford's goal, by a line plunge, and Gaylord bucked for the extra point. Nethercutt tore off tackle for a 35 yard jaunt for the second tally, and A. Davis recovered a fumble on Hertford's 3 yard line with Edmondson carrying over another line plunge touchdown and also the point.

Two of the touchdowns were scored in the first period and at the half the score was 20-0 for the Jax favor.

Butler Brown got off one 70-yard run and Edmondson made it a marker only to be called back for the Jax holding.

With the ball carried back to the twenty yard stripe Edmondson hit the line for eight yards, and Brown for five, then Brown scored again on a 7 yard jaunt. J. D. Edwards put over the point.

The last score came when Simms went around end for 10 yards. A total of fourteen substitutes saw action in the tilt.

The team clicked better against Hertford than in previous games. This was the locals third game of the season.

The starting line-up:

Roanoke Rapids	Hertford
J. D. Edwards	L. E. Hendricks
A. Davis	L. T. Eure
Shell	L. G. Thompson
S. Edwards	C. Tucker
Byrd	R. G. Lassiter
Ferrell	R. T. Byrum
Gaylord	R. E. Stallings
Acree	Q. B. Jessup
Nethercutt	L. H. B. Ainsley
Edmondson	R. H. B. Britt
Brown	F. B. Winslow

Referee: Fred Vaughan. Officials, Hoggard-Vick.

Now Is The Time To Buy Campaign

At the request of NRA headquarters in Washington, merchants and other retailers of Roanoke Rapids will launch a "Buy Now" campaign starting next week.

This will follow the procedure to be followed by cities all over the country in the next step to the National Recovery Administration plans to bring better times.

With most of the codes in operation and the consumers made NRA conscious, the Buy Now campaign is planned to move merchandise at present prices before price advances which are due shortly.

Special window cards, stickers and window sheets have been ordered and the local NRA committee has requested this paper to make its next week's issue a "Buy Now Edition."

If you are away from home, receiving a copy of the home town paper is next to receiving a letter from home.

Much Improved Team Buckles Down For 18-6 Victory

Friday, the Yellow Jackets stepped out and won their second encounter of the season over Rich Square by a 18-6 score.

The locals had a clean-cut victory until the last minute of play when Taylor, visiting halfback, intercepted a pass, scoring a touchdown on a 70-yard run.

Outweighed ten pounds to the man, the Jax put up a stellar and constant drive, outchargin' the burly line that lurked forward and never let the visitors threaten on their line plays, always meeting the waiting arms of the Jax forwards.

The game got under way at 4 o'clock and the fans witnessed the first touchdown as Ollie Acree passed to "Schnozzle" Edwards for ten yards, with "Woodie" Garris sweeping the end for the needed 15 yards to touchdown early in the second quarter.

Garris tallied again in this quarter after the line functioned a twenty-five yard drive, and the last marker came in the third period on another ten yard jaunt by Garris.

The locals failed all extra points, the visitors seemed to fight more for the point margins than touchdowns. Although Rich Square brought a heavy team here, not much could be said for the blocking and charging, especially on offensive work.

A number of substitutes saw action in the fray for the Jax and few may surprise the varsity next week.

Simms, Brown, Garris, Edmondson and Acree did good work in the backfield, and the linemen shared honors together. The work of Gaylord and Shell was outstanding.

The line-ups:

Roanoke Rapids	Rich Square
Gaylord	R. E. Johnston
A. Davis	R. T. Howard
Shell	R. G. Grant
Coley	C. Bolton
Byrd	L. G. Bracy
Reynolds	L. T. Odom
J. Edwards	L. E. Delouche
Nethercutt	Q. B. Main
Garris	L. H. B. Taylor
McNeil	R. H. B. Davis
Brown	F. B. Autry

JAX PLAY NEXT WEEK AT E CITY

The Roanoke Rapids High football team will take the road for the first time this season when they play Elizabeth City there in a district conference Class B tilt next week.

Elizabeth City is said to have an outstanding club this year with a forward wall that averages 170 pounds. They went to the finals in the State race last year.

Sullivan Out.
George Sullivan, speedy half, suffered a broken collar bone in the Rich Square game and will be out for the season.

Acree Is Back
Ollie Acree returned to active scrimmage this week and saw action in the Rich Square game, taking over Dicken's place at quarter. Dickens is out after an operation for appendicitis and may not be able to play this season. Acree fills a hard job and showed up well in last week's game, despite his bad leg.

Woodrow Garris is nursing a bad knee from scrimmage injury and Allen McNeill has the same trouble.

Tackle Alton Davis showed up well in the last game. Gaylord and Robert Davis have recovered from minor hurts. End Winifred Pierce was not as badly hurt as thought and will be back in next week.

Garris Leading Scorer
Woodie Garris tops the Jax list for scoring with 19 of the 25 points to his credit. Dickens scored the other 6.

Reynolds, Davis, Byrd, Gaylord, Shell, Coley and Edwards look like varsity with McCommons, Webb, Edwards, Wood, E. Davis, Fernell, Mincher and Smith pushing them scylole V-1 ing them closely.

B. Brown, Acree, Edmondson and Garris form the best clicking backfield with Simms, Outland, McNeil and Brown not far away.

Total sales on the Hendersonville curb market for the months of July, August and September amounted to more than $12,000.00.

Good yields of Korean lespedeza are reported in Alexander County. One farmer reports he secured 254 bales of hay from less than 5 acres.

FACING THE ENEMY
Deserted by the people, Jesus for the first time in his public work forsook Palestine and led his wondering but still dutiful disciples into the foreign cities of Tyre and Sidon. The journey gave him a chance to be alone with the twelve; and it was, in a small way, a repetition of his earlier triumphs.

He hated to leave these kindly strangers. Much more he dreaded the thought of another trip thru Galilee. What a graveyard of high hopes it was! Every road, every street corner almost every house and tree was alive with memories of his success. Now he must pass each one again, conscious that it might be the last time, his heart weighed down with the thought of high purposes that had brought no response, and sacrifices seemingly in vain. Small wonder that he cried out against Chorazin and Bethsaida and even his own loved Capernaum, the cities for which he had done so much. "Woe unto you," he cried in his loneliness, "for if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon they would have repented long ago, in sackcloth and ashes."

... So the spring and summer passed, and autumn came, bringing the feast of tabernacles, which he determined to celebrate in Jerusalem. It was a suicidal resolve. The report of his dwindling influence had been carried to the Temple clique which was emboldened by the information. There were spies in every crowd that listened to him. All this he knew but did not weigh against his resolve. This might be his last feast. He must be true to his calling at whatever cost. So he went.

We catch one glimpse of him on the Temple steps, surrounded by a party curious, partly antagonistic crowd. It was his chance to recapture a little of the popular flavor, to speak a placating word that might open the way to reconciliation; but no such thought entered his mind. The time for defiance had come. "I have offered you the truth," he cried, "the truth that would make you free." And when they shouted that they were sons of Abraham and hence already free, he replied that they were no children of Abraham, but "children of the devil."

They would have killed him then and there, but their courage failed. Give him rope and he would tangle himself inextricably. Every speech was alienating somebody. When the time was ripe they would seize him.

So they argued among themselves, and he went back once more into his Galilee.

ERMINE SINCE 1900

Thirty years ago, a woman had to be either an heiress, a successful actress, or a "questionable character" to be able to wear ermine. It is still not the poor woman's fur, but it is seen so frequently, and is purchasable at such moderate prices, that we of the "middle classes" can really think of investing in them.
