

THE ROANOKE RAPIDS HERALD

VOLUME NINETEEN

ROANOKE RAPIDS, N. C., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 2nd, 1933

NUMBER TWENTY-NINE

REPEAL ELECTION

North Carolina Votes Tuesday

UP AND DOWN
The Avenue
WITH THE EDITOR

The 89th session of the North Carolina Christian Missionary Convention will meet at Rocky Mount from November 8th to the 10th. Rev. V. H. Grantham of the Roanoke Rapids Christian Church is on the program the evening of the ninth.

Dr. and Mrs. O. Griffin are being congratulated on the arrival of a son, William Crane, weight 8 pounds. The young man arrived on Halloween Night. Mother and son reported doing nicely.

County Commissioner Frank Joyner, was in Raleigh yesterday on county and city business. At the request of the Mayor he again called on Highway Commissioner Jeffries to remind him of his promise to repave the Avenue.

Since the article last week, several readers have called and sent word that there is such a thing as a "Mad Stone" and it works. We would like more details, written.

The Woman's Club will hold their regular November meeting on Monday afternoon at the Club House. Please be present and notify any interested friends. A splendid program has been arranged. Monday afternoon, at 3 o'clock at the Club House.

Richard Webb, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Webb, was struck by the rear fender of a Virginia car near the First Methodist Church yesterday afternoon. Young Webb and other boys were riding on a wagon down the Avenue. They jumped off and into the passing car, which brushed Richard, knocking him down. He was unhurt and jumped up. The driver stopped the car and called to the boy who ran on toward home. The car was travelling slowly, according to witnesses.

James A. Farley, Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, will speak over a nationwide radio hookup on Sunday evening, November 5, 1933, from 10:30 to 10:45 P. M., Eastern Standard Time. This address will be given over the Columbia Broadcasting System.

(Continued three pages over)

HOW TO VOTE FOR REPEAL

OFFICIAL BALLOT FOR DELEGATES TO CONVENTION TO PASS UPON THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES FOR THE REPEAL OF THE EIGHTEENTH AMENDMENT.

INSTRUCTIONS

- To vote for any candidate whose name appears in the column below, mark a cross (X) in the square at the left of the name of the candidate.
- Vote only for the number of delegates indicated below.
- Mark only with a pencil or pen and ink.
- If you tear or deface or wrongly mark this ballot, get another.

VOTE FOR TWO DELEGATES ONLY

Delegate or Delegates For Repeal of The Eighteenth Amendment	Delegate or Delegates Against Repeal of The Eighteenth Amendment
(X) E. L. TRAVIS, SR.	() MRS. LILA WRIGHT PIERCE
(X) N. A. RIDDICK	() HUGH JOHNSON

OFFICIAL BALLOT FOR DELEGATES TO CONVENTION TO PASS UPON PROPOSED AMENDMENT REPEALING THE EIGHTEENTH AMENDMENT. COUNTY OF HALIFAX, NOVEMBER 7th, 1933.

IRVING CLARK,
Chairman of County Board of Elections.

POSTPONE ASSAULT CHARGE

Clarence Byrd Badly Beaten By Johnny Crutchfield In Fistic Encounter

The case against John Crutchfield for assault on Clarence O. Byrd, was continued until Friday, November 10, by Magistrate W. O. Thompson with the agreement of all parties concerned.

A packed court room was on hand to hear the trial last night. In the warrant, Crutchfield had been charged with assault on Byrd with what was apparently a deadly weapon and with what Crutchfield's attorney termed as intimidation of a witness.

To both these charges, Crutchfield, thru his attorney, Julian R. Allsbrook, plead not guilty. The defendant then entered a plea of guilty to simple assault.

Before this plea could be accepted by the court, Byrd and his attorney held a conference and asked for continuance, which was

(Continued three pages over)

OFFICERS TO BRING MATTHEWS

Will Leave Next Week; Expense Tangle Cleared Up At Last

Two officers from Halifax County will leave next week for San Francisco to bring back E. A. Matthews, Roanoke Rapids lawyer under indictment in this county for embezzlement.

Action will be taken by the Board of County Commissioners at their monthly meeting Monday, by which Halifax County will advance the expense money for the trip to be repaid by the State when Matthews is landed in jail here.

Much delay has been caused by this question of who would pay the expenses. There has been some criticism of the State officials for apparent lack of desire to bring Matthews back. It was said that all a law breaker need do was to get far enough away and nobody

(Continued three pages over)

VOTING TO START AT SUN-UP

OFFICIAL Convention Ballot

INSTRUCTIONS

- To vote for "Convention," make a cross mark (x) in the square to the left of the word "Convention."
- To vote "No Convention," make a cross mark (x) in the square to the left of the words "No Convention."
- Mark only with a pencil or pen and ink.
- If you tear or deface or wrongly mark this ballot, return it and get another.

(X) CONVENTION
() NO CONVENTION

OFFICIAL CONVENTION BALLOT
STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
NOVEMBER 7TH, 1933.

L. P. McLENDON,
Chairman of State Board of Elect.

GIRL HIT BY AUTO IS BETTER

School Child Runs From Behind Wagon And Is Struck By Car

Madeline Deaton, six and a half year old girl, struck by a car driven by Mrs. Frank Kemp, Monday, is resting easily in the local hospital today and will recover without any serious trouble, according to attending physicians.

Minor lacerations and bruises were sustained by the little girl, with a slight concussion. There were no fractures or broken bones.

The accident was termed unavoidable by Clyde Brigman, 609 Washington Street, and Walter Sawyer, 613 Washington St., who were witnesses. They say the little girl, with two other children, was following a wagon in the street. Just as Mrs. Kemp's car passed the wagon, Madeline ran out from behind the wagon and in front of the car.

Brigman and Sawyer took

(Continued three pages over)

Facsimile Of Two Ballots To Be Used Printed Here

On this page are printed the two ballots which voters will use next Tuesday, Nov. 7th, in the election on repeal of the 18th amendment.

On the official Convention Ballot, those favoring repeal will vote by making a cross mark in the square to the left of the word "Convention." On the ballot for delegates, those favoring repeal will vote for the two candidates on the left side of the ballot, Messrs. Travis and Riddick.

Halifax County is entitled to two repeal delegates in the convention.

The same rules hold good for those desiring to vote against repeal.

The polls in Roanoke Rapids will open at sun-up and close at sun-down.

In Roanoke Rapids No. 1 precinct, the North Ward, the polling place will be in the store room of the Va. Carolina Furniture Co., corner Roanoke Avenue and Second St. J. F. Welch is registrar.

In Roanoke Rapids No. 2 precinct, the South Ward, the polling place will be in the old Patterson Store Building, corner Roanoke Avenue and 11th St. John Clark is registrar.

All voters on the county registration books, those who voted in the last Presidential election, and those who registered at the special registration, are entitled to vote Tuesday.

The question is on repeal of National Prohibition only. Six States will be voting the same day North Carolina is voting. 33 States have already voted for repeal.

Weldon Home Of G. H. Nash Burns Sunday Evening

The bungalow home of G. H. Nash, local automobile dealer, located on Elm Street in Weldon, caught fire last Sunday at 9:45 P. M. and did considerable damage to the roof, and the furnishings were damaged by water, fire and breakage.

All of the family was at home at the time the blaze started, two of the children being sick in bed.

(Continued three pages over)