E. P. HYMAN FOUND NOT GUILTY BY JURY

E. P. Hyman, prominent merchant of Northampton County, was found Not Guilty by unanimous vote of the jury in Northampton Superior Court Tuesday on a charge of embezzlement.

No trial in recent months has caused as much talk or has drawn larger crowds due to the prominence of those involved. Mr. Hyman had fifty character witnesses from Northampton, Halifax and Edgecombe counties who were there to testify to his good character.

A bench warrant for Mr. Hyman had been drawn by Judge R. Hunt Parker, who had placed Hyman under a one thousand dollar bond in the April term of court.

It all was the outgrowth of Mr. Hyman signing a one hundred dollar bond for a Negro who skipped out later. At a previous term of court, Mr. Hyman paid in fifty dollars and the bond was cancelled.

For the payment. For the payment, Mr. Hyman received twenty dollars in cash and a horse from relatives of the Negro. The horse was sold and returned, passing hands several times and later the Negro returned.

Out of the mixup, Judge Parker in his bench warrant charged Mr. Hyman with embezzling thirty dollars. The jury Tuesday failed to agree with the judge, vindicating Mr. Hyman with a not guilty verdict.

New Dishes From Old

Tasty Ingredients Give Left-Over Foods New Flavor

TRANSFORMING left-over foods into delicious family treats is a culinary accomplishment of considerable merit, but this desirable knack of utilizing the remnants of previous meals may be acquired easily by any housewife.

The secret, as good hotel chefs know, is attaining tasty combinations of the left-over foods with condiments and other appetizer ingredients, which supply the needed zestfulness and make the dish taste new and lively instead of second-hand and flat.

Savory Meat Loaf

2 pounds ground beef; 1 can tomato soup; 2 cups cracker crumbs; 1 teaspoon salt; 1/4 teaspoon pepper; 1/2 teaspoon poultry dressing; 1 tablespoon minced onion; 1 cup sweet pickles, thinly sliced.

Combine meat, soup, cracker crumbs, and seasonings. Mix thoroughly. Fold in pickles. Press into a greased loaf tin and bake in moderate oven (325 d.) for one hour or until done. This loaf is excellent hot or cold, and will keep several days in a refrigerator. Makes an excellent filling for sandwiches.

Another popular dish made of left-over beef is

Everyday Chop Suey

1 pound ground beef; 2 onions; 2 green peppers; 1 cup water; 3 tablespoons butter; 1 teaspoon salt; 1/4 teaspoon pepper; 1 medium can cooked spaghetti.

In a skillet with the butter, fry the chopped onions and green pepper until slightly brown. Add the ground meat and fry until the meat browns. Add water, season with salt and pepper, and simmer for 10 minutes. Add the spaghetti, allow to boil, and serve.

Corned Beef Hash Puffs

2 eggs; 2 cups corned beef hash; 1/3 cup catsup; 1/4 cup water; 2 tablespoons chopped dill pickles; parsley.

Add well beaten egg yolks to hash and mix thoroughly. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites and drop hash mixture by spoonfuls onto buttered baking sheet. Place under broiler and brown. Combine catsup, water and chopped pickles, and heat to make a sauce. Garnish with parsley and serve immediately with the hot sauce.
