

THE ROANOKE RAPIDS HERALD

BULL RIDER HELD FOR SHOOTING GIRL

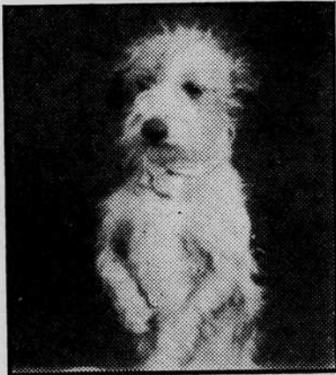

UP AND DOWN The Avenue WITH THE EDITOR

Members of the Roanoke Rapids Merchants Association were invited to a dinner of the Weldon Merchants Association at the Terminal Hotel Wednesday night. President Josephson welcomed the guests and members. Judge Moore, who was to have been the principal speaker, was absent due to illness. Speeches were made by County Agent W. O. Davis, George C. Green, W. L. Knight, Fletcher Gregory, Ellis Faber, president of the Scotland Neck Merchants Association, Alfred N. Martin, representing the Roanoke Rapids Merchants Association, and Julian R. Allsbrook.

The Roanoke Rapids Kiwanis Club will have Ladies Night next Thursday night with a banquet at the Womans Club Building. A special program is being arranged and Bill Medford of Oxford, Lt. Governor of the 5th Division, will be the guest of honor.

PANNILL-WELLS

Mrs. G. W. Wells announces the marriage of her daughter, Lucy Mae, to Mr. Ernest Linwood Pannill on Monday, January the 22nd, 1934, Petersburg, Va. At home after February 1st, 114 S. West Street, Petersburg, Va.

This is Jiggs—who is missing from home. Mrs. M. R. Steinberg, his owner, is offering a reward for his safe return—no questions asked. Details on back page. Jiggs is a little dog, only standing about eight inches high. In this picture he looks like Boola, but Boola is a couple feet high, so please don't make a mistake.

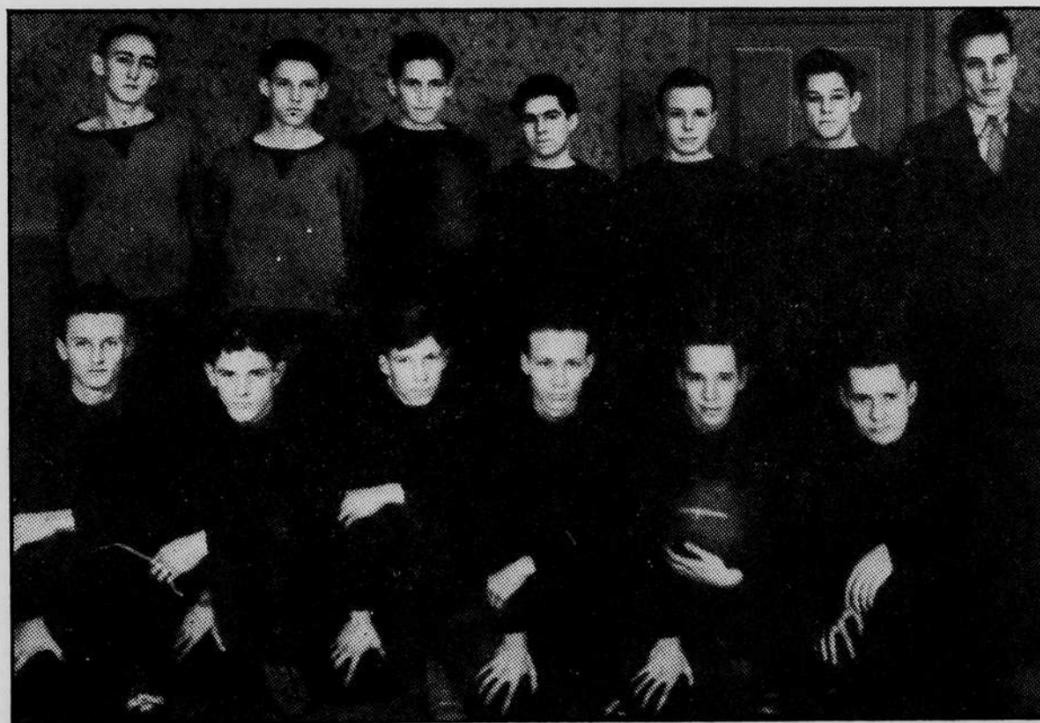

(Continued three pages over)

AURELIAN SPRINGS GIRL CHAMPIONS

The championship girls team of Aurelian Springs High School which won the Bi-County Kiwanis Club Basketball Tournament which ended here Monday night. This group of fighters won the admiration of tournament fans, 1,800 of whom attended the three day meet. It was impossible to get the names of the girls in proper order. However, on the extreme right, next to the coach, is Janie Hedgepeth, high scorer of the tournament, most popular with the fans and selected as All-Tournament forward. Porter of Aurelian Springs made the second team. Other players shown here are Harris, Qualls, Wilson, Lewis and Wood. Complete details of the tournament inside. (photo by Vries.)

ROANOKE RAPIDS BOY CHAMPIONS

Back Row—left to right: Jessie Spencer, James Blanton, Wilson Byrd, Jack Vincent, Geo. Nethercutt, Ollie Acree, Coach Tom Cheek. Front Row—left to right: Milton Bennett, Irvin Dickens, Eugene Shell, Joe McCommons, J. D. Edwards, Captain, and George Miller. The Roanoke Rapids High School team, winners of the Kiwanis loving cup as champions of the second annual High School Basketball Tournament held here. Three of the boys above made the All-Tournament first team: Dickens, high scorer for the boys, McCommons and Shell. Capt. Edwards and Mit Bennett made the second team. Complete tournament details inside. (photo by Vries.)

WOUNDED CHILD IS BETTER

Bad Negro Was Fugitive On Another Shooting Charge At Time

Willie Jones, notorious Negro, better known as Bull Rider, is in jail at Halifax charged with the shooting and wounding of a 12 year old white girl, Mary Elizabeth Parker, at the home of Dock Piner in South Rosemary, Sunday night.

Officers reconstructing the case are finding it difficult to get a true story of what took place at the time of the actual shooting. The Negro came to the Piner place, just across the Chockoyotte

(Continued on back page)

ANOTHER TEST FOR P. O. BLDG

Survey Of Roanoke Rapids Requested To See Chances For Federal Building

Another survey to see if Roanoke Rapids is entitled to a Federal Postoffice building has been requested by Congressman John H. Kerr, and Postmaster John L. Vest has received notification that a Postoffice Inspector from Richmond will pay a visit to Roanoke Rapids within a few days.

The business at the local post-office still lacks a few hundred

(Continued on back page)

OFFICIAL PAVING NOTICE

City Board Designates Sidewalks And Calls For Material Bids.

The City Board of Commissioners has passed an ordinance officially designating the ten miles of sidewalks to be laid in Roanoke Rapids as soon as more CWA funds are available, and a call for bids on sand and gravel. Ten car loads of cement have

(Continued three pages over)