of the HERALD'S Gigantic

CIRCULATION DRIVE

Scores of prospective contestants have announced their intention of entering the campaign since our announcement last week. Hundreds more are awaiting further details of our drive. We ask all of you to "have patience." This is no "fly by night" proposition . . . there are many details to be worked out, and our staff, augmented by Cranford Hoyle, Roanoke Rapids man, who will have charge of the drive, is working day and night to perfect every little detail. Suffice to say that if you will have some SPARE TIME this summer, the HERALD will offer you easy, pleasant work—requiring no experience—in which you may spend full or part time—earning CASH money, or any one of a number of useful, valuable prizes.

HUNDREDS of DOLLARS IN PRIZE AWARDS
