

CITY SCHOOLS OPEN MONDAY SEPT. 10th

REGISTER AT PROPER PLACE HERE NEXT WEEK

Roanoke Rapids city schools will open at 8:20 a. m., September 10th, with indications pointing to the largest enrollment in history.

With an enrollment last year of almost 2,800, local school authorities look forward to handling almost 3,000 children this year. The increases due not only to first year pupils but also to the fact that many pupils who dropped out in previous years are planning to return to school this year.

High School students are asked to report for registration on the following dates:

- 7th. Grade, Tuesday, Sept. 4th., 9 to 12 noon.
- 8th. Grade, Tuesday, Sept. 4th., 2 to 5 p. m.
- 9th. Grade Wednesday, Sept. 5th., 9 a. m. to noon.
- 10th. Grade, Wednesday, Sept. 5th., 2 to 5 p. m.
- 11th and 12th. Grades, Thursday, Sept., 6th., 9 a. m. to noon.

New Text Books

The State Text Book Commission has changed the text books in commercial history and civics and Supt. Davis has asked that students do not buy used books in these courses.

Graded Schools

Miss Clara Hearne announces that it is very important that all First Grade children register on Friday, September 7th. This includes beginners and repeaters.

Those who expect to attend Central School will register at that building at 9:30 a. m., Friday, September 7th.

Those who will attend Rosemary School or the Band Hall school will register at Rosemary School at 1:30 p. m. Friday, September 7th. Time for registration will close at 3:00 p. m.

In order to get all preliminaries out of the way the week before school starts and be ready to begin active work on the morning of September 10th, pupils and their parents are urged to keep the above dates and time in mind and be present for proper registration.

The Colored Schools of Roanoke Rapids will also open on September 10th and children and their parents are requested by the principal to be there on that morning for registration. The school authorities announced that the school building had been thoroughly cleaned and sterilized.

Benefit Baseball

they face a battery like Wilson Mullen and Joe Bynum. Episcopal College stars of former years.

Kiwanis will also place in the field old Trinity College stars like Shag Thorne and Heath Lee, former State College stars, Fletcher Dickens and Ned Manning with Hugh Camp and Alfred Martin from U. of Va., Jack Young and Frank Sherry from V. P. I., Julian Allsbrook of Carolina and a long list of substitutes including Henry Loy of Sedalia.

The game will be very entertaining and the proceeds are for a splendid cause. Help outfit the local High School football team by attending next Wednesday afternoon.

Call Strike

Only cotton textile workers were called out on strike. Rayon, silk and woolen workers were not called but told to stand by for further orders. Union leaders were also told to follow instructions which they had previously received.

Radio reports heard here tonight say that two mills in Alabama went out on strike as soon as the message was received, not waiting for Saturday night. Picketing started at once, according to radio.

Newspaper reports today say that the Dan River mills at Danville, Va., second largest in the U. S., will not go out on strike. Nor will the Pilot Cotton Mills and the Neuse Mfg. Co. at Raleigh, neither of which has been unionized.

In the North, where Labor Day Monday is a holiday, the extent of the strike will not be known until Tuesday. In the South, with most of the mills usually running Labor Day, many of them will open for business as usual, according to George A. Sloan, president of the Cotton Textile Institute.

Chairman Gorman also warned union men not to be misled by Communists whom he says flock to strike areas to create trouble.

Henry Wilcoxon, who plays the role of Marc Antony in Cecil B. De Mille's "Cleopatra" at Paramount, owns an autograph book containing the signatures of the stage stars of 40 years ago.

THE GREAT AMERICAN HOME

BARBECUE GIVEN BY RETAILERS

Merchants Association Host At Barbecue Dinner Next Wednesday Afternoon.

LAKE THOMAS

The Roanoke Rapids Merchants Association will be hosts at a Barbecue Dinner at Lake Thomas next Wednesday afternoon, September 5th., at 6:00 o'clock.

The manager, or owner of each firm belonging to the city retailer's association has been presented one ticket, with the compliments of the club, and has additional tickets at his disposal, which he may sell to other members of the firm, or his family at a very nominal sum.

The supper will be in the form of a social "get-together," and has been planned for quite some time. It is expected a large number of merchants will be present, as well as visiting delegations from nearby cities, who have been issued a special invitation.

After he lost the heavyweight championship, Jim Corbett once told Sir Guy Standing, Paramount actor, that if he had the actors punch he could "come back."

Henry Wilcoxon, almost lost his life while diving for salvage in the West Indies. He became trapped in the cabin of a sunken ship.

NOTICE! NOTICE!

As required by law, foreclosure suits for all taxes due Halifax county for 1931 and all years prior thereto will be filed not later than September 15th, 1934, and all delinquent tax payers are urged to pay their taxes before that date and save court costs.
