New Revue To Play Imperial Wednesday

Charlie Mack will bring Everett Sanderson and his "Century of Nonsense" Revue to the Imperial Theatre next Wednesday-only, for the stage show, which will be presented both matinee and night, in addition to the regular picture program.

This is Mack's latest stage presentation, and comes to Roanoke Rapids from a successful tour of the larger towns.

A feature of the show will be "Hector and his Pals," described as vaudeville's greatest dog act, with 13 dog "actors" taking part. Advance notices are to the effect that the dogs have "brought down the house" every place the show has been presented.

"The Six Stylish Steppers" is the chorus aggregation in which youth and beauty reign supreme. Porter Smith and his "Collegians" is the stage band. Other features of the show include Nanon Gardner, the Ziegfield Girl, The Carroll Sisters, in a dance rhythm, and Tots Pearson, late of Weaver Brothers and Elvira.

THEY ALL GET A LIFT WITH A CAMEL!

HOUSEWIFE. Mrs. C. Daly says: "We all know how much energy a woman puts into housekeeping! My recipe for renewing energy is to smoke a Camel. Camels do pick up my energy when I feel tired. And they have such a mild, delicate flavor!"

STEEPLECHASE RIDER. Crawford Burton says: "Whether I'm tired from riding a hard race, or from a crowded business day, I feel refreshed and restored just as soon as I get a chance to smoke a Camel. So I'm a pretty incessant smoker, not only because Camels give me a 'lift' in energy, but because they taste so good! And never yet have Camels upset my nerves."

E CITY COMING TO TOWN

Two Yellow Jacket elevens will mix stingers here Friday afternoon when Elizabeth City and Roanoke Rapids highs meet on Smimons field to renew their old rivalry.

Last years state conference tussle went to the Elizabeth City club on their home field by a 20-0 count. The local Jackets are more than anxious to revenge this score Friday. The visitors and the locals were thrown out of the state race last week when Edenton laced E. City 20-0 and previously handed the locals a 12-0 defeat.

After the game with Elizabeth City the locals have two more home games booked and one perhaps with Scotland Neck highs, Chapel Hill and Oxford highs make up the other two booked games.

Miss Mary Cameron of Baltimore is the guest of her sister, Miss Griselda Cameron.
