New Operator At Residential Shop

Miss Ann Weston Payne, of Greenville, is now employed as a beauty operator at the residential shop of Mrs. Curtis King. Mrs. King established a shop at 1220 Hamilton Street about a year ago, and has seen patronage increase to such an extent that it has been necessary to enlarge her facilities several times. Miss Payne is a thoroughly experienced operator, and the shop specializes on permanent waves.

MISS BUTTS HOSTESS

Miss Lucy James Butts was hostess to the Childrens Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy at the home of her aunt, Mrs. C. F. Musselman on Wednesday. It was decided that a box of candy should go to their adopted grandmother, Grandmother Carson, as a Christmas gift. Christmas gifts for the Old Soldiers Home, Raleigh and Old Confederate Ladies Home, Fayetteville were discussed.

The following program was rendered. A piano solo, by Jessie Gregory. Clara Fenner gave a humorous reading and a second piano solo by Marie Dickens.

The hostess served ice cream to the members present. The meeting adjourned with the singing of "Dixie."

port News, Virginia and Caroline Moncure Long, of "Long View". They wore long dresses of pink taffeta and little pink bonnets and carried lace-trimmed nosegays of blue flowers.

The bridesmaids were Miss Margaret Long, a sister of the bride, and Miss Heath Long, of Raleigh. They wore venetian frocks of moire in stained glass shades of rose and amber, with tricorns to match, and carried bronze chrysanthemums tied with tulle.

The maid of honor, Miss Betty Gray Long, wore a frock of blue moire with matching tricorn and carried an arm full of rose colored chrysanthemums.

The bride entered with her father, Dr. Thomas W. M. Long, by whom she was given in marriage. Her wedding gown of ivory satin was fashioned on venetian lines also, with high cowl neck and loop sleeves, ending in points. The skirt was made with a long graceful train. Her veil, which fell from a cap, was of tulle and rare old lace, worn by a great-great-grandmother of the bride, Sarah Pierpont Hunt, at the time of her wedding to John Fenning Burgwyn. The bride carried a bouquet of white Bride's roses with a shower of lilies of the valley.

The groom was attended by Mr. Henry Zovck, of Baltimore, as best man, and Mr. Edward N. W. Hunter, of Newport News, Virginia, and Mr. William J. Humphries, of Baltimore were groomsmen.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bridal party, relatives and out of town guests, were entertained at an informal reception at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. M. Long.

The night before the wedding Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Jarman entertained the bridal party and several other guests at a buffet supper after the rehearsal. On Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Jones Long of "Long View" entertained the bridal party and several other guests at luncheon.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas W. M. Long of Roanoke Rapids. She attended St. Mary's School, Raleigh, N. C. Lieut. Hunter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Patterson Hunter of Portsmouth, Virginia. He attended St. John's College, Annapolis, and graduated from the U. S. Military Academy in June, 1933. He is a member of Kappa Alpha fraternity. He recently graduated at Kelly Field, Texas, and has orders for the Canal Zone, Panama, where he and Mrs. Hunter will make their home for the next two years.

Following the reception, Lieut. and Mrs. Hunter left for a wedding trip to New York and from there will sail for Panama.

Among the out-of-town guests for the wedding were: Mr. and

Mrs. F. P. Hunter, Miss Mary Hunter, Miss Kate Wilcox Foote, Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Foote and sons of Portsmouth, Virginia; Dr. and Mrs. Edward Caye, Miss Anne Caye, Mr. and Mrs. Blount Hunter of Portsmouth, Virginia; Lieut. and Mrs. John Feathstone of Fortress Monroe, Virginia; Miss Julia Humphries of Baltimore, Maryland, Dr. and Mrs. F. "I'M DEFROSTED FOR THE WINTER!"

"I'M ALL SET for one of those old-fashioned Winters! I just got myself a bureau-drawerful of HANES Heavyweight Champions. Get them by the dozen, I do . . . but only wear one at a time. I've had HANES before and believe me, I'm for them! I can't describe it exactly, but they make you feel like you are somebody. You know what I mean—they sort of snug and hug right up to your skin, and you want to throw your shoulders back. They're not too tight, though. You can bend over without getting cut in half. But the main reason I like them is, they keep me warm. I can't 'take' the cold. The Missus is all for HANES, too. She hasn't sewed a button since I don't know when. Yes, Sir, I'm defrosted for the Winter . . . and I'm not fooling!"
