Alston-Taylor

Littleton, Dec. 13—Miss Allene Hargrove Taylor and Mr. Gideon Forte Alston were married at Saint Albans Episcopal Church Wednesday evening, December 4. The rector the Rev. B. N. de foe Wagoner performed the ring ceremony. Mrs. W. B. Coffin of Henderson played the organ, accompanying Mrs. W. Lou's Taylor of Townsville, so called. Ushers were R. B. Taylor of Townsville and Julian P. Johnston of Littleton. The groomsmen were Willis Perkins Taylor, brother of the bride. Ribbon girls were little Misses Allene E. Taylor and Hattie Daniel Taylor. Miss Lula Ellen Morecock was the only bridesmaid and Miss Edwina Taylor, sister of the bride was maid of honor.

W. G. Alston, brother of the groom, was best man. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Willis Perkins Taylor. The wedding was the 56th anniversary of the bride's maternal grandmother and grandfather and the 21st anniversary of her parents. The bride wore her mother's wedding gown of ivory satin. The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Perkins Taylor of near Littleton. The groom is the son of the late R. L. and Mrs. Willie Daniel Alston of Littleton and is a popular young salesman of the Alston Grocery Co. After the ceremony, the young couple left for a short honeymoon after which they will be at home for a time with the parents of the bride.

SCHEDULE EXAM FOR LOCAL POSTMASTER

Application for those desiring to take the examination for Postmaster of Roanoke Rapids must be filed before January 2nd., 1935, according to a notice received today by Carl Churchill, secretary of the local board of Civil Service examiners.

At the request of the Postmaster General, the U. S. Civil Service Commission announces a competitive examination for the office of Postmaster in Roanoke Rapids, a second class postoffice, paying $2,600 per year.

Competitors will be rated upon their education and training, business experience and fitness.

Application forms are in the hands of Mr. Churchill at the local postoffice.

Postmaster J. L. Vest's term of office expires the first of the year. He will hold over until his successor is appointed, which will probably not be before March, as on the same date examinations are being held by the Commission in more than sixty 2nd class postoffices in the country and each must be passed on and checked by the Commission.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to our many friends for their kindness during our recent bereavement in the loss of our husband and father, C. A. Lyerly. Especially do we thank the nurses at the Roanoke Rapids Hospital for their kind attentions.
Mrs. C. A. Lyerly and children.

CHANGE PLACE OF DANCE

Location of the dance this Friday night has been changed from over Rosemary Furniture Co. to the Chockoyotte Country Club. Paul Jones' orchestra will play. The dance is for the benefit of the H. S. basketball fund.
