

FATHERS URGED TO ATTEND JOINT PTA MEET NEXT MONDAY

Cale Burgess, of Raleigh, To Be Speaker Of Evening At High School

A joint meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association will be held in the High School Auditorium next Monday evening, January 21st to which all parents are invited and especially urged to attend.

The meeting is being held at night in order that more fathers may attend. Cale Burgess, of Raleigh, will be the principle speaker of the evening, and will make a short talk on the school situation today. Mr. Burgess is well-known throughout the state, and it is expected that a great number of those interested in schools will take advantage of this unusual opportunity to hear him.

This meeting is a part of the legislative program undertaken by the Parent-Teachers Association this year.

Miss Walker To Wed Rob. Conroy Speight

On Friday night the Fidelis Class of the Baptist church at Littleton entertained at a surprise party and miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. J. W. Benton, honoring Miss Edna Walker, one of their members whose marriage to Robert Conroy Speight of Roanoke Rapids, will take place on Saturday afternoon, January 19th.

The lower floor, which was thrown ensuite, was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

The honoree was called to the front door where a message was delivered to her advising her to follow a line which was fastened to the door. At the end of the line in the lower reception hall she found a table piled with many lovely and useful gifts. After the gifts were opened the guests were invited into the dining room to cut the cake. The dining table was covered with an important lace cloth and centered with a lovely brides cake. White tapers in silver holders were placed on each side. The honoree was first to cut the cake and was surprised to find that she had cut the ring which was unusual at this time.

Peach cream, cake and mints was served to the following:

Miss Edna Walker, Mrs. Lee Riggan, Mrs. E. T. Epps, Mrs. O. H. Curran, Mrs. Bobbie Newsom, Mrs. J. E. Stranburg, Mrs. Ed Hale, Mrs. J. Robinson, Miss Hazel Hale, Mrs. Julian Acree, Mrs. H.
