Patrolman Added To Police Force

C. M. Kirkland, until recently traffic Sergeant and co-chief of police at Franklin, Virginia arrived in the city the first of the and has been added to the police force here.

Present plans, it was learned, is to use Mr. Kirkland in addition to the present staff of officers. A motorcycle will be purchased for him in the near future, and he will be made traffic sergeant, it is said.

Mr. Kirkland has an enviable record as a peace officer, having served 16-years of his life in law enforcement work. He was in Franklin for two-years, and in Petersburg, Virginia, for eleven years, prior to his coming here. He is a former Navy man, and will undoubtedly be a valuable addition to the present city force.

DR. DAVIS

Dr. W. L. Davis, Washington, N. C. eye specialist, will make his regular trip to Roanoke Rapids next week-end. Local customers of the optometrist may see him at Cullom's on Thursday, March 21st, and at Hodges Jewelry Store Friday, March 22nd.

Will This Be 'Car of Future?'

In the car of tomorrow, it seems, the engine will be missing—from its usual place. A skeletonized model of a new type automobile, non-capsizable, streamlined, and carrying the engine in the rear, is shown as displayed in Hollywood by its inventors, Allen M. Hoppe and Allen F. Streut. There are no running boards and fenders, and the auto can hold six passengers.
