

BEST SHOW IN YEARS FORECAST FOR MARCH 22nd MINSTREL SHOW

Rehearsals have progressed to the point where Pirate Gold, the 5th annual Minstrel-Revue, has been set down by critics as being the best of the five shows which have entertained local audiences during preceding years.

This Minstrel-Revue, with almost 100 local stars, will be staged here at the Roanoke Rapids High School auditorium, on Friday night week, March 22nd.

Trunk loads of special costumes, scenery and properties will arrive this week from the most recent showing of this Pirate Gold at Boston, Mass. Director John Hutchings is more than pleased at the progress made to date. The largest dance groups and girl numbers in five years will be attempted on the 22nd while the Minstrel Second Part, reversing the order of the past, is full of fun and frolic which will leave the audience fully satisfied.

The public should understand that all proceeds of this show go to a fund which is used for work among the underprivileged children of the community and for other charity work. A ticket not only insures a night's entertainment for the family but it also provides funds for carrying on a worthy cause.

Expenses are heavier than most shows of this kind because of added number, special direction, scenery, costumes, royalties, and all else it takes to make a real Broadway show.

In order to guarantee the standing cost of the show, 150 seats in the school auditorium have been priced at one dollar.

The balance of the house is at the usual prices of 75 cents for adults and 35 cents for children. The dollar tickets may be purchased from any member of the local Kiwanis Club and are not reserved except as to the section of 150 seats. The other 1,750 seats are the usual prices, many of them as good or better than the dollar seats the only advantage of which is that a purchaser can wait a little longer before going in.

However, the curtain goes up at 8 p. m. on Friday night, March 22. And for two hours the cream of Roanoke talent will appear on stage.

Some of those whose names in the past have been seen in Pirate Gold are face comedians Rola Lyle Wilson, Howard Speight and Ikey Jones.

Special effort is being made to "borrow" from radio. The program will feature TF, their program manager, Ham Poyner, blackface community is on the docket from the hot-steppings of Otchie Acree and a lady partner in the Continental and Carioche to the shuffles of blackfoot comedians and the taps of a bevy of 32 beautiful girl hoofers in one dance act.

A ten-piece orchestra will be in the pit with Mrs. Clyde Martin at the piano. Two spotlights and color wheels will be in charge of Harvey Hazelwood. Stage lights and scenery will be handled by a crew with Roger Cullom in charge.

Names of others in the show will be published next week, including all the girls, at least 50, who will take part.
