

Police Court Changes Hours

THIS WEEK AT THE COUNTY RECORDER COURT

Hear Ye. Hear Ye All interested in attending the City Police Court of Mayor Kelly Jenkins. Court time has been changed.

Effective next week, the city court will meet in the mornings instead of afternoons.

New hours of Police Court will be at ten a. m. each Monday and Friday of each week.

The change has been made on account of the hours of the police, it being possible for them to attend the morning sessions better under the new set-up.

Monday sessions will get all the weekend business, while Friday morning will catch the overflow from the Monday session and what may come up during the middle of the week.

All's Beautiful Along Potomac

In the spring a public's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of cherry blossom time in Washington. And the reason is evident in this scene, heightened by the beauty of the Japanese foliage lining the Potomac river bank. The Washington monument rises in the background.

"The dog has always shown me more affection than Rose ever did," asserted Jack Stone in court in Denver, after divorcing his wife, Rose, and getting a court order that he might keep the family dog.

"Camels ARE SO MILD... SO MUCH MORE PLEASING!"

"Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS... Turkish and Domestic... than any other popular brand."
