

Local Family Injured In Va. Auto Crash-Up

TRAYNHAM FAMILY AND BUGGS

Sustain Injuries In Sunday Night Wreck Near Hanover, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave L. Traynham and daughter, Catherine, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Bugg and W. A. Suitt of Weldon, were injured in a car wreck near Hanover Court-house, Va. Sunday night.

The others returned to their homes here Monday while Mr Traynham, who suffered a broken nose, returned here Tuesday.

Latest reports are that the driver of the other car is in a serious condition.

The local folks returning from Washington to Roanoke Rapids, struck them when they were on say the driver of the other car the other side of the road and report that he had just run another car off the road a short time before striking them.

The following report was given from Weldon, residence of Mr. and Mrs. Bugg: Eight persons were injured, one seriously, in a head-on automobile collision one mile north of Hanover courthouse in Caroline County, Va., Sunday night. The injured ones were carried to Memorial and Grace Hospitals in Richmond by passing motorist. Three of the injured were Weldon residents. They were W. P. Bugg, manager of the Terminal Hotel here, who received head lacerations; Mrs. W. P. Bugg, multiple cuts and bruises and head injury, and W. A. Suitt, Terminal Hotel Clerk, who received cuts and bruises.

Riding in the car with Mr. and Mrs. Bugg were D. L. Traynham, who sustained a broken nose, Mrs. Traynham who got several cuts about the face and arms, and Miss Catherine Traynham, who was injured on her legs.

In the other car were Raymond Bowers, 19, Hanover Court House who is reported to be in a serious condition having sustained a broken arm and concussion of the brain, and Miss Louise Backley 16, also of Hanover Court House who probably has broken ribs and several cuts and bruises about the body.

Bowers and Miss Backley are in the Memorial hospital and the Weldon and Roanoke Rapids people are at Grace. The accident occurred on straight stretch of the new Washington highway when the car driven by Bugg who was returning from Washington collided head-on with the car driven by Bowers. Both cars were demolished.

State Officer Flippen is investigating the case.

The collision occurred almost in the center of the highway.
