5 GENERATIONS ALIVE HERE

FIVE generations of the same family live in Roanoke Rapids. They are Mrs. Bettie Inscoe, 95; her son, D. A. Inscoe, 73; his son, F. L. Inscoe, 43; his daughter, Mrs. J. B. Reid, 21; and her daughter, Hattie Pearl Reid, 21 months. Mrs. Inscoe is the wife of the late Henry Inscoe who died in 1909 at the age of 75. He was a Civil war veteran. Last Sunday Mrs. Inscoe attended Mother's Day service at the Methodist Church, was given flowers for the oldest mother present, is probably oldest mother and one of oldest persons alive in Halifax County.

LOCAL PATROL TROOP 42 AT STATE J AMBOREE

COUNTY BOARD WILL CALL SPECIAL MEET

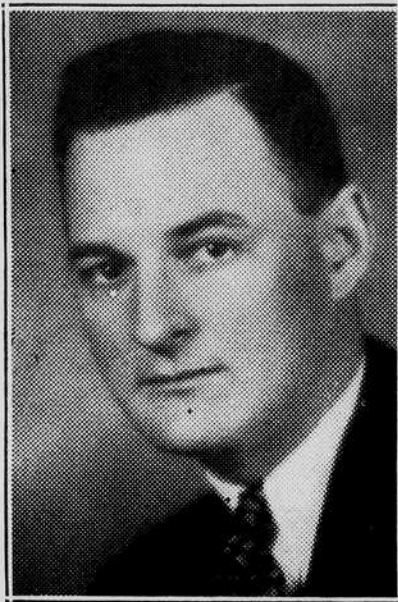

LIQUOR CONTROL ELECTION

There will be a special meeting of the County Board of Commissioners within the next few days to decide whether or not and if so when to call a special election for Halifax County to vote for or against the liquor control act for this county.

Commissioner Wrenn was told tonight by J. Waldo Whittaker, Board chairman, that the delay was because the Board had no printed copy of the new act. Upon receipt of this and advice of County Attorney George C. Green, Mr. Whittaker said he would call the Board into special session.

Mr. Wrenn has been impertuned by many Roanoke Rapids citizens to ask the Board to take quick action on the matter.

Above patrol represented East Carolina Council with exhibit of Seashore Camping and were commended by Chief Scout James E. West at the State Jamboree in Chapel Hill two weeks ago.

SENATOR ALLSBROOK is back home after a notable record in the 1935 Legislature. Next week his complete record will be printed.

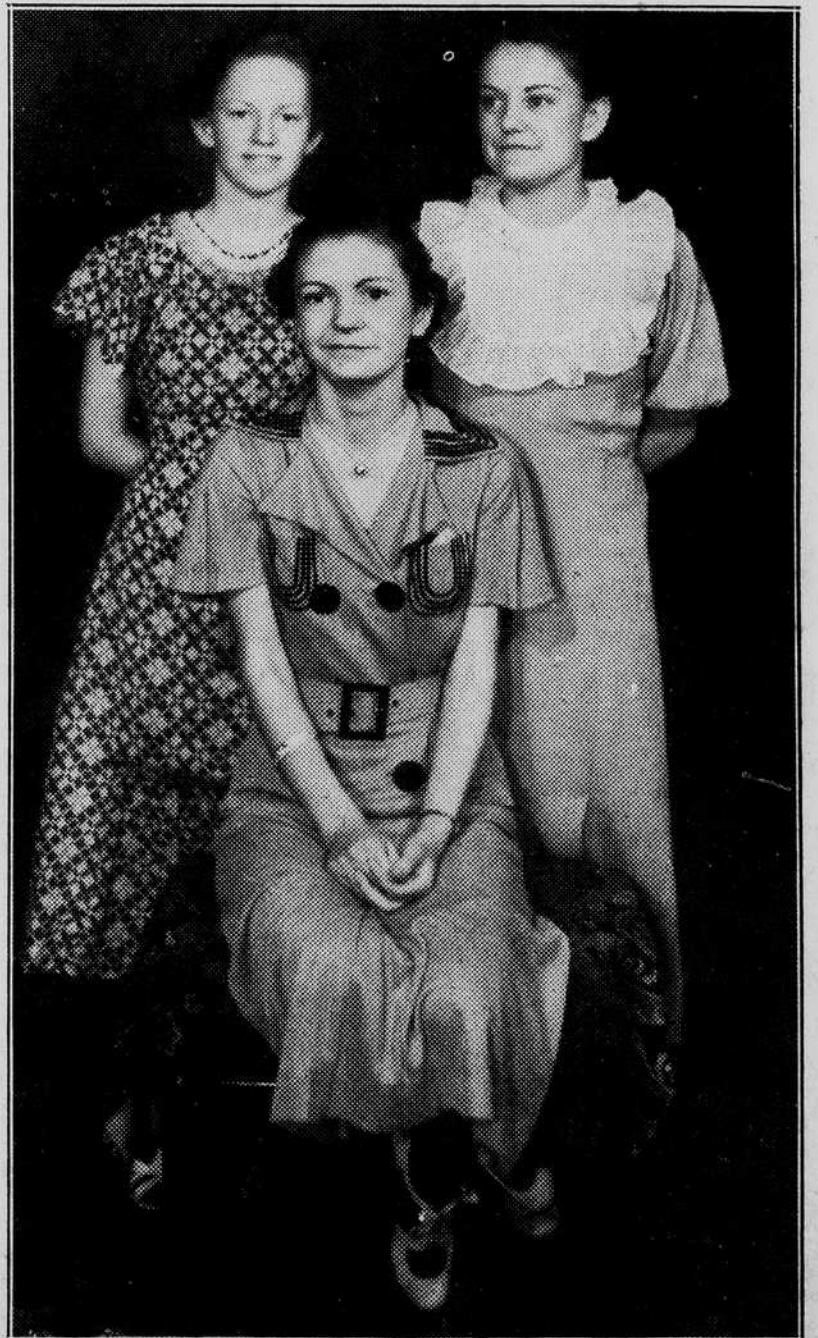

CLEARING GROUNDS THIS WEEK

Work on the two new city buildings for Roanoke Rapids will start here on Tuesday, May 21st, according to news received from both contracting firms by Mayor Kelly Jenkins today.

The ground for the Post-office Building is now being cleared of trees. S. M. Thompson of this city has that contract. The building will be constructed by James I. Barnes Co. of Logansport, Ind.

The other will be built by Lee Wheeden Co. of Roanoke Rapids.

TRIPLE WINNERS KERR MEDAL

Seated, Dorothea Matthews; standing, Mildred Stallings and Claudeline Lewis, three graduates of the Aurelian Springs High School this year who attained the same academic average for the four years, 95.5, thus making it necessary for Congressman John H.
