

M. R. 'MIKE' DUNNAGAN IN RACE

Raleigh, June 13. - M. R. (Mike) Dunnagan, Raleigh newspaper correspondent announces that it is his "present purpose" to become a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Secretary of State in the primary and election next year. His statement is as follows:

"It is my present purpose to ask the Democrats of North Carolina to nominate and elect me Secretary of State. I have talked over this ambition with party leaders and workers for more than a year. Many of them encourage it and promise their support. I am making this statement now to prevent uncertainty and to let my friends and Democrats of the State know of my intention."

Macon Rush Dunnagan is a native of Yadkinville, N. C., finishing High school and teaching two years in Yadkin County. He practically worked his way through the University of North Carolina, waiting on table and managing the former University Inn. He was secretary, treasurer and president of the Dialectic Literary Society and business manager of "The University Magazine." Since graduation he has been secretary-treasurer of U.N.C. Alumni associations of Forsyth, Mecklenburg and Durham Counties.

He started his newspaper work as reporter, later city editor, of the Winston-Salem Journal, later being city editor of the Charlotte Observer, managing editor of the Asheville Citizen, manager of the Durham News Bureau, and for several years has been Raleigh correspondent of several newspapers, including the Roanoke Rapids Herald.

During the last 15 months of Governor A. W. McLean's administration, he was his personal secretary and was director of publicity for the State Democratic Executive Committee in the 1928 and 1934 campaign. He is a Methodist and formerly a Kiwanian and member of the Junior Order.

He finally got in limited service (fallen arches) in the World War

"Having a Time Here"

NEW YORK . . . Above is Princess Katherine of Greece, 22, who is now in the U. S. on a trip around the world and "having a fine time here." She is traveling incognito, accompanied by two chaperones. One of her first stops was at Hollywood, Calif., to see movie stars in the "raw."

as private, later corporal, in the Gas Defense Division, Chemical Warfare Division, located at Philadelphia, where he published a small weekly detachment newspaper; and is a charter member of Charlotte Post of the American Legion, later belonging to Asheville, Durham and Raleigh Posts.

SOUTH ROSEMARY

The baseball game Sunday evening between South Rosemary and M. C. Mosely's junior team of Rosemary was won by the juniors. The score was 25 to 7. The South Rosemary boys didn't know what they were up against until they got over there Sunday, but are looking for a chance to win it back next Sunday. Lewis was the star player of South Rosemary, fumbling only two balls the whole game. Two base hits were by Bryant and Griffin. The boys fell down on catching. They couldn't find one who could hold them up. They tried Barnett, Hudson and Edmondson, the last proving to be the best. Pitchers were Livesey and A. Edmondson. For the Rosemary team Shell pitched the whole game, holding out through nine innings. Batting order for South Rosemary is: Little Red Edmondson, catcher; "Buck" Livesey, pitcher; Bryant first base; Hudson second base; A. Edmondson third base; Lewis short stop; Griffin right field; Wall center field; D. Hudson left field. The boys hope to be in better practice next week.

Mr. Johnne Shell is suffering from a smashed finger.
