

Italy's Camouflaged Tents in East Africa

Enemy planes would have a difficult time spotting these Italian tents which are camouflaged the color of the terrain. The tents are erected in Eritrea, not far from the Ethiopian border. The men are awaiting Mussolini's "Go" before starting their invasion.

He Kills Lions for a Living

Jay Bruce of California, official lion hunter for the state and the only man in the world who kills lions for a living, recently put the five hundredth notch on his trusty gun. He figures that he has walked every bit of 40,000 miles while trailing varmints for the state fish and game commission since 1919.

Town of Palmer Springs Up in Alaska

The town of Palmer, being built in Matanuska valley, Alaska, by colonists from the Middle West, is pictured here on a busy day. In the foreground are the administrative headquarters of the Alaska Rural Rehabilitation corporation. The long building is the warehouse which also houses the telegraph and radio offices of the United States army signal corps. Tents of the colonists are to be seen in the background.

Not an Ill Wind for These Children

Any wind that blows down a school house is all right, according to the children shown in this picture playing in the ruins of a portable school at Bairdford, near Pittsburgh, Pa. A sudden gale blew the building a hundred feet from its site and effectually flattened it.

Second Battle of Marne Monument

President Le Brun of France places a wreath at the pedestal of the huge statue at Soissons which was dedicated to those who died in the second battle of the Marne. It also expressed France's thanks for allied help during the great war.

RESETTLEMENT BOSS

Mrs. Thomas Beck, wife of a publishing company executive, has the distinction of being the only woman among the 11 directors of the government's program of rural resettlement. She is director for region No. 1, which includes all New York state and Pennsylvania as well as New Jersey, Delaware, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Vermont, New Hampshire and Maine. Her work will be to aid agriculturists to move to more fertile areas as the government takes over substandard land for production. Straggling farm families will be helped to rehabilitate themselves on land they own.
