Examination for the position of Postmaster at Littleton will be held in Roanoke Rapids next month, according to Carl Churchill, Secretary of the Local Board of Examiners of the U. S. Civil Service.

The Littleton Postmaster pays $2,200 per year.

Patrons of the Littleton Postoffice who wish to take the examinations must make their applications before January 3rd and the examination will probably be held at the Roanoke Rapids High School building by Mr. Churchill, who will conduct the test. The date for examination has not been set but it will be about January 18th.

All applicants for third and fourth class postmasterships must assemble for a written examination, which differs somewhat from the examinations of first and second class positions. Only patrons of the Littleton Postoffice are entitled to take the examination, they only after making the proper application to Washington.

Admission cards will be sent applicants on which the date of the examination will be stated.

Applicants must bring photographs with them on the day of examination, must be between 21 and 65 years of age, unless war veterans, when age limit is waived.

"Promenade Deck"

Ishbel Ross (above), is the author of the new serial story "Promenade Deck" which starts in this newspaper this week. It is a story which wins high praise from the critics. Like "Grand Hotel" it is a study of people as they live together. The scene of this story is aboard ship on a world cruise.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad and loving remembrance of my dear brother, who departed this life one year ago, Dec. 8, 1935.

Thou art gone, my precious darling,

Nevermore canst thou return; Thou shalt sleep a peaceful slumber,

Till the resurrection morn. There we'll meet you, precious darling,

There we'll clasp glad hands once more;

When we've met to part no never, On that happy golden shore.

Sister, Mrs. Hervie Lee Gray, Littleton, N. C.

J. R. Bunn of Henderson was a business visitor in the city.

Mrs. Eugene Kimball and John Dunn attended the funeral of Balfour Dunn in Scotland Neck Monday.
