

Ferrell--Trueblood

A wedding of quiet simplicity and dignity was solemnized Saturday morning at ten o'clock in the Weldon Methodist Parsonage, when Miss Ruth Trueblood became the bride of Mr. Roy Lee Ferrell of Roanoke Rapids, with Rev. J. O. Long, pastor of the bride, officiating in the presence of a few friends and a few of relatives and a few intimate friends.

Prior to the ceremony, Miss Lucille Ferrell, sister of the bridegroom, rendered a program of nuptial music. Mrs. W. O. Davis sang "At Dawning", "O, Perfect Love", and "I Love Ygu Truly". The bridal chorus from Lohengrin was used as a processional. "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms" was played softly during the ceremony.

There were no attendants. The bride and bridegroom entered from the stairs and stood before a background of pine and tall baskets of white spirea flanked with branched candlesticks of cathedral tapers while the vows were spoken.

The bride was attired in a tailored frock of Alice blue wool with matching cape. Her accessories were of a darker shade. Her flowers were a shoulder corsage of pink roses and lilies of the valley. Her only ornaments were earrings and a pin that were family heirlooms.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Ferrell left for a northern wedding trip. Upon their return they will be at home in Roanoke Rapids.

Mrs. Ferrell is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gray Trueblood of Weldon. She received her education at Weldon High School and Tilghman's Business College.

Mr. Ferrell is the son of Mr. J. W. Ferrell of Roanoke Rapids. He received his education at Roanoke Rapids High School and the University of North Carolina and also studied law under Judge Pell of Raleigh. At present he is employed in Patterson Mill office of Roanoke Rapids.
